

PINE NEEDLES QUILT GUILD DISPATCHER

JULY REGAP

The July meeting was our annual picnic, though we didn't end up at Grassy Hollow. As long as there was good "eats", I guess it all worked out fine anyway.

Debbie Stefan and Joyce Gwinner brought Friendship Block patterns in for sign-ups. Remember anyone can bring in a block to have made, you just have to commit to making twelve blocks for other people.

Block of the Quarter blocks are due next in August if you want a chance to win a set of blocks. Your name goes into the drawing once for each block you make. You can do one block or more.

Lora Steinmann is asking for people to sign-on as house captains for the Home Tour houses.

The program was a Swap & Sell. Most people donated their items to the guild to sell. Lauri Lile and Lynn Crawford did a great getting the best price for the guild and most things sold. A few better items were auctioned off. Lauri was prepared to play auctioneer but was let off the hook when Cindy McCormick called her son, Jarett, who is a professional auctioneer and he came over. It was great fun!

August Meeting

Our August speaker will be Pine Needles Guild member Kathy Lee Smith. Kathy will share her extensive training in quilt appraisals and judging. Kathy Lee has been a guild member for many years and served as former guild President. She's very involved in the quilting division of the San Bernardino County Fair.

Remember to Bring

1. Secret Pal Gift
2. Name Badge
3. Show & Tell
4. Block of the Quarter

The guild expresses our deepest sympathy to Dani Fisk in the recent death of her husband. Dani was a long time guild member and served many years as the guild's newsletter editor.

Newsletter deadline for submissions is the Friday following the board meeting. Please email to Gwen at jonasnet@verizon.net

This & That

AUCTION UPDATE

The Mini Quilt Auction was a great success. We had 57 quilts and made $3670 (the 2nd highest ever.) That's especially good considering the road closure and high temperatures that Saturday. Material Girls friendship group won Best of Show and Best Wrightwood and their quilt went for $525! Other ribbons were Joyce G. for Best Children's, Lynn C. for Patriotic and Rose B. for Best Use of Color. Many thanks to Peggy Freligh for making the ribbons for the awards.

President's Message

This is a month to express big thank yous: to Kathy Mekemson for a well-organized and very successful quilt auction; to all of you who helped with the auction by serving on the committee, doing all the various jobs on the day, and, of course, making and donating the many beautiful and creative quilts; to Flo Souza, Sandy Mogg, Christy Marxsen, Linda Rhoades, Antoinette Todd, and Nancy Fogo for helping with cutting fabric, fusing and drawing up designs for the Kids' Workshop and one more to Nancy for hosting us at her cabin; to Rose Burcher for the donation of some beautiful fabrics and a good quantity of batting to use for the workshop and future charity quilts; and to the entire guild for your patience and good humor during the change of venue for July's meeting.

Finally, I'd like to thank Joy Agnew for offering to help out with Treasurer's duties while Heidi Bishop takes a leave of absence. If any of you need reimbursement for guild purchases, you can contact me or Joy.

Young Quilters Are Great

wonderful websites

Linda Barret wanted to share with guild members one of her favorite websites:

Overtherainbow.com

The site has embroidery, redwork and other goodies.

If you have a favorite quilt related website you'd like to share in the newsletter, email the info to Gwen at jonasnet@verizon.net.

newsletter goes online

Speaking of the web, the new guild website that Beth started has allowed us to post the newsletter for all to see. Many people have already emailed me to say they no longer need a paper copy of the newsletter mailed to them every month. This will be a great money and time saver for the guild, plus it allows members to see the newsletter for the first time how it's supposed to look... in beautiful colors!

Be sure to tell me if you haven't already, if you don't need a paper newsletter. Of course we'll still mail to those who aren't online.
Gwen, Newsletter Editor.

LOCAL TALENT

If you don't see your quilt, it's nothing personal. I decide which pictures to use by which photos come out the best. My camera work isn't always that great!
