RIBBONS GALORE FOR PNQG
QUILTERS AT SB CO. FAIR

Our biggest winner was Lorrie Havens for Overall BEST OF SHOW. Congratulations to Joy Agnew, Lorrie Havens, Cristy Marxsen, Kathy Mekemson, and Linda Rhoades for bringing home BEST OF SHOW Division ribbons from our County Fair. Kathy Mekemson had three of those pretty purple awards and the High Points Over All Beginner Class winner with her 9 quilts—all of which won something. Other high scorers were a Best of Class for Marilyn Caudron, Lorrie Havens, Cristy Marxsen (and two Best of Divisions), Kathy again, two for Flo Sousa, four to Beth Stanton, and one to Carolyn Villars. Judges' Awards went to Beth and Carolyn as well. Cristy, Beth, and Marilyn Caudron also won theme ribbons. Of the 280 quilts entered in the fair, our guild entered at least 45 of the winners. A big thank you from Kathy Lee for all the volunteer hours, and a mea culpa if your award is listed incorrectly.

JANE TENORIO-COSCARELLI

continued the string of outstanding speakers our guild features. Jane has written children's books, published patterns, won prizes, and designed fabric with an ethnic flair. All of her products can be found on her web site, quarterinchpublishing.com. But best of all, Jane kept us laughing with her slide show of Quilt-a-beasts—our embellished garments, our shopping foibles, our fabric stashes, our seriously comfortable shoes. We could all identify with the photos Jane had taken at various quilt shows, thankful she hadn't seen or photographed us!

One of her most memorable tips was keeping a baggie or small box of sewing utensils and a hand sewing project handy beside every chair, and even in her car, in case of a breakdown—she can always finish a section or block while she waits for roadside service.

Debbie Stefan made this stunning rock climber for her son Jeff. Great value contrast!

Flo Souza made this Twisted Ribbon design all from one fabric for the rest home.

Linda Rhoades designed these falling leaves and used it for her Friendship Squares project. Did you make a block?

Lorrie Havens made two of these delightful heart and vine patterns, one for the auction, and one for a friend..

Joy Agnew embroidered and set these charming "Over the river and through the woods" blocks for her home.

Cathy Crase went through Judy Sisenos' book four times to get her Patchwork Pizazz right. Workshop June 10th.

Sandi Mogg shows off her on point pastel tablecloth, made for herself. Quietly beautiful.

Mel Bunge had two auction quilts ready, and this Flower and Vine for herself. Way to go, Mel!

Harriet McGlothlin made this lovely Acorn Quilt on commission for the Acorn Lodge, on our Home tour last year.

Icky Orr put this Cicely Mary Barker fairy panel together for the auction. It will win a little girl's heart for sure.

Joyce Gwinner made these 4 apples and a worm for the upcoming auction. Can I place the first bid?

COMING EVENTS:

SPEAKER for June 9th is Judy Sisneros. Join the speaker for dinner at 5-5:30 at the Grizzly Café.

PICNIC IN JULY

NEW LOCATION & TIME

Our annual picnic will be held at the Wrightwood Country Club's Clubhouse on Tues. July 14, 2009. No need to bring a chair this time as tables and chairs will be set up for us! Our program will be outside on the deck, and due to diminishing light we will begin a little earlier, at 5:30.

Directions to 1287 Oriole Road. For those of you coming from out of town, make a left on Willow (which is the street directly across from the POST OFFICE). Drive straight up to the club. Make a right turn, and you will find parking on the left in the upper parking lot. The clubhouse is adjacent to the parking lot. Bring a flashlight, jacket, and something delicious for the potluck.

DEBBIE STEPHAN volunteered to take charge of the Mini Quilt Auction at Mountaineer Days in July. Lots of small quilts needed! And volunteers in 2 hour increments.

ANDREA TRULL is looking for workers during the 2 weekends of the Quilter's Run in July at her quilt shop. She will pay by the hour or in shop credit.

The OPPORTUNITY QUILT has been out and about, bringing in $154 donated to the Wrightwood Fire Station on Fire Awareness Day, and over $130 at the Redlands Home Tour. Laura Green needs volunteers to sit with the quilt at Andrea's during one day of the Quilter's Run, July 12th.

NEW MEMBER BETTY ANN FUDULA won the raffle last meeting. Look for her taking photos at the June Meeting for publicity and the newsletter, bless her!

BLOCK OF QUARTER winnings were divided between Joanne Tschantre, Marion Hall and Cathy Crase.

GUILD RETREAT two days in October. Everyone elected to sleep in their own beds, but sew like mad at the Camp Wrightwood Dining Hall.

New Members Anna Cook, Tami Evers, Shelley Hanson, Nita Herman, and Nancy West please see Carolyn to get your pictures in. CORRECTIONS: Marlene DeJONGH's phone no. is 838-1673, and she is in Pinon Hills.

Kathy Lee, Fair Textile Chair, noted that only one quilted clothing item (jackets and vests, etc.) was submitted this year, vs. 8-10 last year. And sewn garments of any type were very thinly represented. She's hoping for more articles to be judged in these less obvious classes.
