

QUILT GRAB INVOLVES EVERYONE— DECEMBER 6TH HOME TOUR PREP

December 9th Meeting STARTS AT 6:00 PM

Come early, with a dish of 5-6 servings. Guild will supply plates, napkins, cutlery, and drinks.

Home Tour quilts will be inventoried, and returned to owners at this meeting.

Decisions, decisions—which is the best home to display this quilt? The list goes on—see the pile of quilts already assigned at the far right.

Kathy Mekemson, Mel Bunge, and Antoinette Todd keep track of the quilts going to Acorn Lodge. Each home had a table with volunteers writing the chosen quilts down. No quilt has been lost yet!

Laura Green is pleased she got this purple beauty for “her” house, as Sally Dupont and Christy Close hold the quilts up for the committee ladies to select—the quickest shout often wins the prize—all the quilts will be seen somewhere, but sometimes you just know that THAT quilt would look especially good in the upstairs bedroom of the home you are chairing..

Carol Poisal's first pieced quilt! You go, CAROL!

Linda Rhoades finished her quilt from the guild's Margrit Hall class.

Marlene Bowman's first miniature quilt with tiny Trick or Treaters.

Marilyn Caudron used her winnings from a block of the quarter drawing to make this twisting and tilted quilt..

Harriet McGlothlin is on a wildlife kick after her trip to Alaska. She did another of 3 bears up a tree (not pictured).

This hand quilted beauty was made on commission by Marion Hall.

Marion Hall with a Christmas tree panel cut up and set with attic window pattern, peeking in on the scene.

Holiday table runner with tiny log cabin cuts, Marion Hall again.

Stephanie Neal made this wall hanging for a friend who loves giraffes.

A friendship quilt filled with love and good wishes for Joyce Finau, ready for Christy to quilt. Thanks, Michele Falb, for organizing us on this.

ORNAMENT EXCHANGE-December Meeting

Anyone wishing to participate should bring a handmade ornament, which can be a purchased handmade ornament. The ornaments will be displayed on tree and then participants will draw for the one they get to take home.

SECRET PAL REVEAL: Each member who has participated in the secret pal program for the year should reveal themselves to their secret pal sometime during the evening. Participants usually bring their last gift for the pal they've been giving to all year and another for the one who has been giving to them.

MINUTES OF THE PINE NEEDLES QUILT GUILD BOARD MEETING, NOVEMBER 18, 2008

Location: Wrightwood Library, Pine and Apple

Attendance: 7 Board Members and 4 guests

Call to Order: 6:35 pm

Approval of Minutes.

Reports: none

Miscellaneous: Christmas party discussed and budget was for $300. Centerpieces for 12 tables to be made. Kathy bought dinner service kits at Costco for 50 people. Beth will bring tree for ornament exchange.

Discussion of repeat of Wednesday classes by member on a following Saturday for those unable to attend a Wed. class. Darlene researching copyright and purchase of books for classes. The idea was tabled until the January meeting.

There will be no December Board meeting and the December meeting will be the Christmas party.

The first Board meeting next year will be the 3rd Tuesday of the month and will be new board members and the past year's board. It will be a dinner and time and place to be announced.

Discussion of home tour ticket sales, etc. Marlene will have meeting Thursday the 20th and will need help stuffing envelopes and making baskets. Quilts have already been distributed to each home's chair person.

Motion to adjourn by Marlene and second by Debbie at 7:25 pm.

*Respectfully submitted, Lori Hovey, Secretary

Laurie Lile's Strippers' Round Robin quilt ready for binding and Home Tour.

Antoinette Todd made this snuggly flannel snowman quilt.

Laura Greene with more flowers and a nine patch design..

Lorrie Havens loves paper piecing—another beautiful Judy Niemeyer pattern.

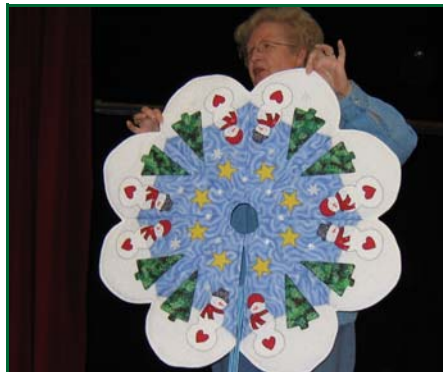

Ginger Wheeler had fun with these chocolate tipped blocks and piano key border.

Kathy Mekemson made this hand-embroidered advent calendar for her grandson.

Sally Dupont's Monday friendship group made this to comfort her during upcoming treatments. God speed, Sally!

Marlene DeJongh is ready for the holidays with this cheery tree skirt.

One of our newer members, Chris Enriquez, made this Eleanor Burns' sampler.

Mel Bunge has color in this lively Southwestern quilt.

Lynn Crawford received this Bridges of Madison County quilt from Peggy Freleigh for speaking to Peggy's Iowa guild.
