The next meeting is Tuesday, October 14. Four of our guild members will be sharing their other craft loves (some people do things other than quilt!). Leonor Ferris will be sharing her doll making, Elisa Gurley will show her oils, Fran Ouimette will share her china painting and Marion Hall is going to surprise us with ???

From Marlene Bowman: Plans for our 21st annual home tour are progressing. Our flyers are being printed this week and the post cards have arrived. We will be assembling packets to distribute to our local merchants soon.

Now the work turns to our members. It's time to get those UFOs finished so we can proudly display them at the tour. Remember, we will need cookies to be served at the cookie house that will once again be held at Rose Burcher's home. Also, this year we are having a guild table at the boutique so please make a few small (or large) items to donate to the cause. Remember, everything we do for this tour has the end goal of acquiring enough funds to have those wonderful speakers we enjoy!

Lynn will be contacting all the members who have not as yet signed up to work for 2-1/2 hours the day of the tour. Please help your guild present itself in the best way possible to the community and those who support us each year.

We still need a house leader and an assistant for one of the small cabins. Please let Lynn Crawford know if you can do it. If you have never been a house leader, don't worry, we'll give you plenty of guidance and you'll have a lot of fun.

There will be a home tour meeting on Tuesday October 21 at Marlene's house, 5590 Dogwood Rd 6:30 PM.
