NEWSFLASH!!!

Hi Fellow Quilt Guild Members,

This will be a quick note to you all to remind you of the format of the January meeting, and a little news about February.

Joy Agnew has decided to be your newsletter editor for this year, but with so little time for the extensive training she will need in order to do the same quality job that Lynn Crawford did, she has given herself another month to get up to speed.

January 13th 2015 Meeting:

Start Time: 6:30

Activity: Left, Right, Center (A fun dice game we play where you can win fabric!)

Bring: A friend!

For the game, bring nine 5" squares for Left, Right, Center. Squares should be of different fabrics. If you are bringing a friend, bring squares for the friend.

Remember: Return Library books or totes
Name Badge

If you are on the list for refreshments or door prizes, you will be called.

February 10, 2015 Workshop

For the past several years we have "gone dark" in February because of the unpredictable weather. For this year, there will be a Charity Quilt Workshop at the Community Building, weather permitting. No business conducted at this gathering, just work! We will be divided into groups of Sorters, Pressers, Cutters, Sewers, Birthers and Tie-ers. Don't know what a "birther" is? Me neither! We will get that all "sorted" out at the January meeting.

So come and bring a friend to the January meeting for fun, and come to the February workshop for charity.

Fond Wishes and Happy New Year!
Joy Agnew
