President's Message

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!!

*H*oping you all had a fabulous holiday season.

Mary and I are both humbled and excited to have the opportunity to be co-presidents this year and have been brainstorming for PNQG. Since there are two of us...we have two President's challenges for 2017! The first one is to challenge each current member to bring one guest to a meeting or workshop during the year. That would be about 50 guests and if even just a few join, our membership would certainly benefit. Mary and I will look for other ways to get the word out about our amazing guild and the super talented women who are members. The other President's Challenge involves the library. You all know I absolutely love books. So, we would like for members to make a quilt from one of the books in the guild library. Mary and I will have more details forthcoming. The reveal of the quilts will be at the October meeting....that's right...the month before the Quilt Grab! Your creations will inspire others to take advantage of the guild membership perk of our own guild library. And we will have lots of new quilts for the Home Tour! Wink...wink!

I think I speak for Mary in saying we are beyond grateful to be in the company of the women of this guild. We are a sisterhood that is built around charity, thoughtfulness, and warm heartedness. It is important to recognize the wonderful things happening to our quilting family. Each meeting, we will start off with Celebrations. Come prepared to share something positive that is happening in your family, work, leisure, or anything else. This will be a great way for those of us who have been around awhile to reconnect with each other, and will provide an opportunity for those new members to get to know us. Win-Win! Mary and I are both looking forward to an awesome 2017!!!

Darlene,

PNQG Co-President

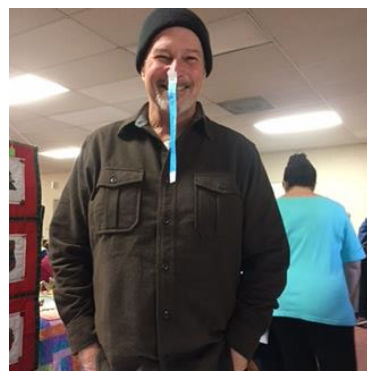

This Month's Meeting

This month is our traditional Game Month! We will be playing Quilto. Bring a fat quarter for every Quilto card that you want to play (minimum of 6 fat quarters). A prize will be given for each game we play, plan on maybe 5 games. On the last game, it will be a cover game depending on how many fat quarters we get. Whoever wins gets the fat quarters!

It's time to renew your yearly membership, yay! Look for the form at the end of the newsletter, print it out, fill it out and bring it to the meeting with cash or check for $30. If there are no changes to your information, then just put your name on the form and fill out the top right area. The treasurer and the membership ladies both need the information from these items. DON'T FORGET TO PAY before the March Meeting, or you will have to pay an extra $10. I'm very sorry, but there are no exceptions.

Last Month's Meeting

THANK YOU!!!

We gave a great big thank you to Elisa Gurlie, for serving the past two years as our President. The Guild members each made a block to create this special quilt for Elisa's thank you gift.
