President's Message

Hello!

Well... it's official! Halloween is over and now the holiday season is revving up. The weather is cooler and the leaves are falling. Here comes the pumpkins, cornucopias, turkey dinners and most importantly....the Quilt Grab!

Remember to bring your quilts to the November meeting. We will need lots of quilts this year. Elisa & Dianne, Joy and Lynn, and Marlene and Darlene are house leaders and will be competitively grabbing your quilts for the homes. It is always a fun night. The forms are with this newsletter.

The Home Tour committee has been hard at work behind the scenes gearing up for the biggest fundraiser of the year for our guild. We will have lots to share with you at the November meeting and will be looking for lots of help from each and every member. This event truly takes a village!

I understand that we have volunteers for all of the guild duties for next year, including that of treasurer. Thank you, Joy! And a great big, gigantic, colossal, humongous THANK YOU to everyone who stepped up to take positions for next year. I am overwhelmingly grateful for all of the time and energy that is donated by our amazing ladies to maintain and improve our guild. We are small, but we are mighty! As I always say....it's not quantity, but quality!!

I heard that the President's Challenge was a huge success and I am thrilled at how many entries there were. Thank you so much for participating! I'm looking forward to seeing the November newsletter and the pictures of all of the amazing quilts!

Hugs and stitches!

This Month's Meeting

From Carol Gaines and Elisa Gurley, Programs

Our November guild meeting will be the "quilt grab" for the December Home Tour. Members bring their favorite quilts which will be displayed in our host homes in December. We need so many quilts to decorate these homes, so don't hesitate to bring several. The house leaders will set up tables, quilts will be held up, and the leaders will claim the ones they want in their respective home. The guild has labels (found in the newsletter) that need to be filled out for each quilt submitted. Each member should record the location assigned to each of their quilts (again see the forms). If you are a newer member, don't hesitate to team up with an experienced member to help you. It's a night of fun to see the wide range of beautiful quilts made by our guild. The quilts will be returned at the December dinner party.

What to Bring

- Quilts for the Home Tour
- Money for 50/50 Drawing
- Sew and Tell

2017 CHRISTMAS QUILT

Many members helped make this beautiful Christmas Quilt. You may already have your name in the bucket, if you worked on this!

Bring your money to the November & December meetings to buy a chance to win this queen sized Christmas quilt with matching shams. The drawing will be at the December meeting. This opportunity is for guild members, only.
