Hello Ladies!

Lots of things going on this month!

The Pomona Craft Show is happening March 8, 9, and 10 and our own Tops and Bobbins Quilt Shop will be featured as the HandiQuilter dealer at that event.

Of course, we don't NEED anything....but...you know how that goes. I went to QuiltCon last weekend and really enjoyed seeing new things that the modern quilting world brings.

Bring your dollars or checkbook to the March guild meeting. The library will be having a sale on books that have been purged to make room for new books. These books contain lots of amazing quilts, projects, and techniques and can be yours for just $1 per book! Such a deal!

We had a great turnout at the February guild meeting that had ladies cutting and pressing for charity quilt blocks. So awesome to see all of that activity for such a worthy cause. Thank you so much to all of the ladies who turned out!

The Mini Quilt Auction Committee had its first meeting and we are off to an excellent start. Now is the BEST time to get started on those auction quilts. June is right around the corner and we will need lots of quilts to make this auction super fabulous!

The San Bernardino County Fair is swiftly approaching! The theme this year is, "The Fun Starts Here". The info for entering quilts is at the end of this newsletter. Let's have lots of entries from our guild! So many of our members have won top honors at this show. You could be next!

Enjoy the last official month of winter. We turn those clocks forward on March 11 and daylight savings time means more daylight for sewing!

Hugs and stitches!
Darlene

This Month's Meeting

From Carol Gaines and Elisa Gurley, Programs

Our speaker for March is Sandy Corbin whose topic is "Making scrappy quilts fresh again." You may wish to preview Sandy's work at her website: www.sandycquilts.com. We also will have guests from Beach City Quilters who will bring their opportunity quilt to show. Bring some extra dollars to purchase tickets.

In March we will take sign-ups for our April 14 workshop on feathers with Heidi Stagno. Cost will be $30, part of which can be paid with your $10 guild member coupon. You can preview Heidi's work and find a supply list at: www.quiltingwithheidi.com.

In May, we will feature a demo night. We would like to share tools or techniques, so if you have a tool or technique that you can demonstrate, please contact Carol Gaines or Elisa Gurley.

Don't forget our Presidents' challenge- sew something silver in honor of our 25th home tour. Our September meeting will be a challenge quilt show, so complete the quilts by September.
