PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Carol Gaines
 909-559-0099
gainsmath@yahoo.com

Happy Spring everyone. The longer days brings more light for quilting, don't you think? Please plan to bring auction quilts this month or next. We have a small membership this year, so it is critical that we all help by donating quilts for the July auction. Please also bring quilts from the President's challenge.

The Antelope Valley Quilt Guild is hosting a quilt show at the Lancaster fair grounds on March 18 and 19. The cost is $10 for both days and hubbies enter free! I hope that our members can support this high desert event. I have asked their guild to support our auction.

I look forward to seeing you all at our next meeting!

Wrightwood Arts Center

The Pine Needles Quilt Guild hosted the annual member meeting at the Wrightwood Arts Center on April 8. Approximately 30 members and guests attended the meeting. Rose Burcher, Marlene Bowman, and Lynn Crawford hung 23 quilts from guild members to be on display for approximately one month. The art community loved the display, especially the variety of styles of quilts. The quilters that showed their quilts were Elisa Gurley, Lynn Crawford, Joanne Tschantre, Beth Stanton, Marion Hall, Marlene Bowman, and Laura Greene. The quilts will be returned on May 18.

May Program

This month Anne Sonner will present her lecture and trunk show on family quilt history. Ann will display and tell many one-of-a-kind stories about quilts, such as a quilt that belonged to a teenaged Civil War Soldier and a quilt that traveled the Oregon Trail in a covered wagon plus many others.

Quilt Auction: July 6, 2019

The Auction date is quickly approaching and we will soon be hanging quilts around the village. I hope to see some finished quilts turned in at our upcoming meeting. The final date to turn in your completed quilts is May 27. This gives you a final three day weekend to finish and provides the committee sufficient time to gather and display them around town. Our workshop to name and describe is May 27th. More on that later.

I will be seeking signups for the day of the auction and will have a signup sheet. Consider what you would like to do. Each position is 2 hours or more if you like. We will need the following:
