PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Carol Gaines 909-559-0099
gainsmath@yahoo.com

Can you believe that the Autumn holidays are nearly here? I am starting to panic in that I have too many unfinished projects that I want completed for the home tour. I hope that every member is intending to bring quilts to the quilt grab! It should be fun.

Another piece of business for the guild will be to elect the board for next year. Beth Stanton is in charge of the nominating committee. Contact her if you have nominations.

Plans for the December dinner party are underway. That will bring an end to the 2019 activities for the guild. I hope to see all members at the party!

CAROL

Just a quick note to all who have charity quilts. Please finish & return at Oct. meeting. We have given out 55 so far. Amazing ladies keep up the good work. Would like to have given out 100 this year. Almost there.

There will be more kits to take & I am having a sewing day at my house Oct 21 from 10 to when ever. 12496 Reata Road Apple Valley. All are welcome to join us.

Linda Anderson is our guest speaker at the October meeting. You may recognize this piece from Road to CA 2018. Following is her artist statement:

Everyone everywhere has a story. I am compelled and attracted to find that moment that captures the essence of the person and share it through the medium of fine art quilts, merging the two elements that are closest to my heart: drawing and sewing.

What grabs my heart the most are peoples of different cultures and circumstances. A lot of my work is about expressing the uniqueness of humans around the world, while celebrating the ordinary moments of people doing what they do that often goes unnoticed. It is the combination of high drama from strong value contrast and color that catch your eye and the gentle delicacy seen up close that defines my approach to fine art quilts.

Home Tour

House Leaders, remember to tour assigned homes looking for color schemes and room size. Everyone else, keep quilting! Three of these homes are large.
