President's Letter

Happy New quilting year. As being shut in continues, I'm sure we are all looking forward to spring. I'm taking advantage of this cooler weather and reducing the size of my stash by creating more quilts. Pretty soon I'll need to store them in a separate building!

At our zoom meeting this month we will catch up on some business and then play our favorite silly quilto game. Again, if you did not get quilto cards from me, send me a text or email and I'll get some to you.

Stay home, stay safe.
Marlene

Alternative Fabric Shopping

Just a little note since we don't have any fabric stores open near us, I have been watching Sew Yeah on line. They are a fabric store in Las Vegas. They have been selling fabric on Tuesday nights called New Stash, and Saturday nights is called Destash. Tuesdays is their new fabrics, I think the price is $10 or $11 a yard.

I generally attend the Destash on Saturday nights. Yards go for $5.00, they'll have 3 one yard bundles for $15, 108 x108 for $25. They also have charm squares, jelly rolls and layer cakes, for good prices. You'll have to have a good computer connection to the internet. There are people from all over the world "bidding" for the fabric. Here's a link to the video that explains the whole procedure.

This is some of the items I've bought. Left is a fat quarter pack by Wilmington and below it are Batiks 5, one yard cuts. To the right are 5 three yd cuts. Bottom four are Benartex. The top one is Henry Glass.

You are not stuck with ordering this way, but you can shop for any particular color, print, and I believe you can do it on zoom. They are particularly fast on shipping.
