A Word from the President

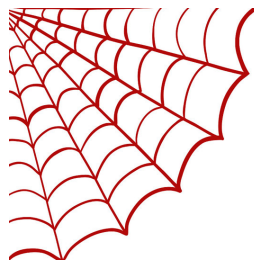

It's certainly heading towards winter where I am in the PNW. Temps in the 30's. Lucky I'm a quilter and have lots of warm comfy things to curl under.

Speaking of warm quilts, this months meeting is to get those charity quilts started and finished so kids less fortunate than ours will have a warm gift for their holiday. Christie Close will lead you in the right direction.

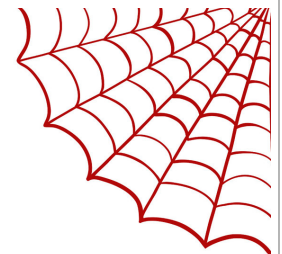

We are still looking for officers for next year. Please consider stepping up to help the guild continue.

Looking forward to seeing those finished quilts.

Marlene
