INTRODUCTION

NEW BIRTHING THE SOUL

It comes from the heart of eternity, from the Master of Love himself — Jesus of Nazareth — who once walked the earth speaking truth, and who now speaks again, not in earthly form, but in the language of spirit, love, and revelation.

Over a century ago, beginning in 1914, after the death of his beloved wife Helen, a humble man named James E. Padgett became an instrument for these messages. As he was still mourning her death, he discovered that as he prayed from his heart and felt love for her, his pen in hand would begin to move involuntarily across the page. The words flowed freely, not from his own mind, but it was a letter signed by Helen, his beloved wife telling of her love for him and her souls progression in her new home in the Spirit World.

Then to his surprise, came to write was his family and friends and then his grandmother Ann. All told of their progress through the Spheres to the Celestial Heavens. Some of them wrote of the laws of the Spirit World and the soul progression. His grandmother encouraged him to pray for Divine Love, more and more deeply and as he did she informed him that Jesus also wanted to write messages to him and the world, if he was willing. At first he did'nt believe it as he was a intellectual, a lawyer in Washington DC and a Protestant Christian. Regardless of these doubts, the messages came to him as he opened his heart to Divine Love. Over a span of 9 years he received many messages from Jesus as well as from his Apostles, John, Luke, Matthew and many others. They explain many spiritual principals and laws and said they wanted to correct the many misunderstandings in the Bible of his gospel, mission and teachings. These messages were originally published as, The True Gospel Revealed Anew By Jesus.

New Birthing is not a rewriting, nor merely a reflection, of the timeless conversations between Jesus of Nazareth and James E. Padgett. It is a sacred transfiguration — a living continuation of the True Gospel Revealed Anew. In these pages, Jesus steps forward from the realm of spirit into the present moment, speaking directly to the listener and reader with a voice vibrant, tender, and filled with the same Divine Love that first flowed through him on Earth 2000 years ago and again to Padgett over a century ago. This work brings the eternal truths into fresh light, awakening hearts to the living presence of the Master of Love and Wisdom, who still calls each soul to its New Birth through the transforming power of God's Love.

These are not new doctrines or religious creeds. They are a living invitation to every human heart — to experience what Jesus calls the New Birth — a transformation of the soul through the inflowing of the Father's Divine Love.

This is the heart of New Birthing.

In these pages, G Bo Amin, a fellow soul, seeker of truth — offers a fresh sharing of these profound truths for our time. Not to add to them, but to shine light upon them. To bring clarity, simplicity, and warmth to the most beautiful promise ever given to humankind:

That the Love of God is real... it is waiting... and it can be yours.

This New Birth is not about belonging to a religion. It is not achieved by belief alone. It is the awakening of the soul itself — the transformation of our inner being by receiving the very substance of God's Divine Love through heartfelt prayer.

This, Jesus tells us, is the awakening of the soul and the Second Coming of the Christ Spirit in all who choose to walk this path. It is not his return in flesh and blood — but his return in Spirit and in Truth, through these loving revelations, and timeless truths the Holy Spirit is guiding us home to the Father in Heaven.

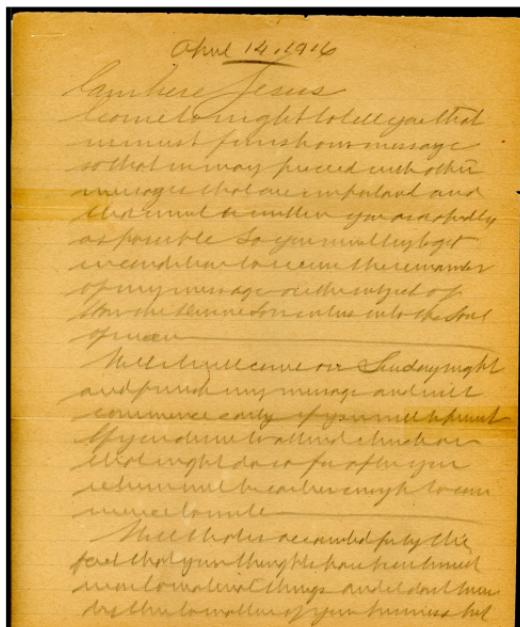

This is the Christ Spirit: alive, active, and available — calling us beyond knowledge into soul-experience...

beyond fear into love... beyond separation into oneness.

God's great plan for humanity has always been this:

Not punishment, but transformation.

Not fear, but Love.
Not distance, but intimacy.
This book is an open door. The journey is personal. The invitation is eternal.
Are you ready to begin?

A 1916 message from Jesus to Padgett

CHAPTER ONE

HEART TO HEART

- MESSAGES FROM

JESUS

My dear friends, gather close. Let me share with you, from the depths of my heart, why divine love is so urgently needed in the world today. I am here, ,Jesus, to help you receive and restore ...spiritual truths. For long, misunderstandings about God and my mission have clouded hearts and minds. Some believe salvation comes from rituals, rules, or even my death.

But that was never the way. God, our loving Father and nurturing Mother, offers us something far greater. His divine love, freely given to transform your souls. I came to show you this truth, ...and it's time we all remember it again. The world is in crisis. Look around and you'll see so much pain, selfishness, anger, and a lack of love between people.

My dear ones, this isn't the life God wants for us. His divine love can soften even the hardest hearts, helping us become more loving, kind, and connected to one another. This love changes us from within, bringing peace where there was conflict. If you are willing, I will show you the true path to peace, love, and peace.

I see so many searching for meaning, feeling empty or lost. Some turn to books, rules, or traditions that promise salvation, but their souls remain restless. Let me tell you plainly, true salvation comes only when you let God's divine love into your heart. It's like a seed planted in your soul, growing into eternal life.

Trust this path. It leads to the peace you seek. Your purpose, my friends, is to become one with God, to feel His love as your own. But humanity has drifted far from Him, like children who've forgotten their father. God longs for you to return to Him, and through divine love, you will be saved. You can. This love transforms your soul, drawing you into a deep and beautiful closeness with him.

Do you know what you're capable of? You are more than you see in the mirror. With divine love, you can grow into something glorious. A being filled with light and goodness, fit for the heavenly realms. Don't stay stuck in anger, fear, or doubt. There's so much more waiting for you. Some see God as angry, ready to punish.

But, my friends, that isn't who He is. God is love itself. A gentle, kind, father, mother, who wants nothing more than to share His love with you. Let go of fear. Open your heart to His divine love, and you'll feel His warmth and tenderness filling your soul. Imagine a world where everyone sees each other as brothers and sisters.

Wouldn't that be beautiful? Divine love makes this possible. When your heart is filled with love, you can't help but treat others with kindness and respect. Together, we can create a world where love conquers hate. Where peace triumphs over division. Many people chase things. Money, success, or recognition.

Thinking they'll find happiness. But those things don't fill the soul. God's love does. It brings a joy so deep and lasting that no earthly thing can compare. Let Him fill you with this love and you'll know true happiness. The world is changing and challenges lie ahead. But don't be afraid. God is preparing hearts to awaken to His love.

This awakening is part of the second coming, not of my body, but of my message, alive again in your hearts. With divine love guiding you, you'll be ready for whatever the future holds. In closing, dear ones, I came to show you that God's love is the key to everything. Peace, joy, and love. unity, and eternal life.

This love is not far from you. It is all around you, and may come inflowing into your soul. It's waiting, like a gift, for you to receive it. Let it transform your soul. Let it fill your heart. And together, let's create a world where love reigns.

I love you always,
Your brother and friend,
Jesus

CHAPTER TWO

WORLD PEACE BY DIVINE LOVE

My beloved brothers and sisters, I come to you now not as a distant figure from history but as your living brother, your eternal friend, and the master of the celestial kingdom. My heart is full of love for you, and I speak to you from a place of divine truth and infinite compassion.

I listen as much as I speak, and I feel the longing in your hearts. For peace, for understanding, for healing, and above all for love. You do not walk alone. I walk with you. You live in a time when the world is longing for peace, and yet you see nations divided families, broken and hearts burdened with fear and sorrow.

These divisions do not come from God. They're born of ignorance, of pride of the human will, striving apart from the Divine will. But I tell you truly, there is a path to peace that is not of this world, a peace that surpasses all understanding. Philippians 4:7. This peace comes through the reception of Divine Love into the soul, the transforming substance of God's own essence offered freely to every man, woman, and child.

This is not a peace negotiated through treaties or upheld by weapons. This is the peace of the soul, the peace of knowing you are loved by the Creator, beyond measure and the peace that arises when you see your brother and sister as your own self. It is the peace that comes when the soul is reborn through Divine Love, what I have called the New Birth, a new world religion, not of institution, but of spirit.

Let me speak plainly to you. What is coming into the world is not a new institution with walls and doctrines, but a new spiritual awakening, a movement of hearts lifted by Love. This is what I have called the - New World Religion. Not a religion of dogma or exclusivity, but of spiritual truth and unity. The cornerstone of this new way is Divine Love.

It is the Love that flows from the Heart of God into the souls of His children who sincerely ask for it. It is this Love that transforms the soul, lifting it into the Celestial spheres, uniting it with the Father's very nature. You need no priest to stand between you and God. You need no ritual to sanctify your path.

You need only your sincere longing and your humble prayer say - “Father. Open my soul to receive your Divine Love. Let me become at one with You. In essence and in spirit.” This is the prayer I taught while on earth, and it remains the truest, simplest path to salvation and joy. The power of Love to unite.

Consider for a moment what divides the world. Religion, culture, race, ideology, borders, and fear. Now imagine a world where every soul recognized the other not as stranger or enemy, but as brother, as sister, as fellow child of the same Loving Parent. This recognition does not come from mere tolerance or human compassion.

It comes as the soul touched by divine love. There is neither Jew nor Greek. There is neither bond nor free. “There is neither male nor female for ye are all one in Christ Jesus”. Galatians 3 28. This was not merely a statement about a religious group, but a divine truth for all humankind. In Divine Love, there is no division.

The soul knows no nation. It knows only unity. And in that unity, peace reigns a personal relationship with the living God. The new World Religion will teach each soul to come to know God, not through books or temples alone, but through direct experience. This is the most sacred truth I came to reveal, and which was sadly obscured by the traditions of men. Now you may come to the Father yourself as His beloved child and receive from Him, His very essence, His Love.

I am not God and I never claimed to be. I am your brother, the first to receive the fullness of divine love into my soul, and I come still to show the way. I do not ask for worship, but for understanding. My mission was and is to reveal the Father's Love and to guide you into it One ment with Him.

“I'm the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father, but by me”. John 14:6, yes, but how? Not by belief in my death, but by following the path I walked. Prayer, meditation, humility, love, and the earnest longing for Divine Love to fill your soul. This is the way to the Father. This is the true meaning of the words I spoke.

The end of division, the birth of brotherhood. The old world has built its towers of religion with walls and separations, but the new spiritual awakening tears down those walls. It sees not the labels of man, but the light of the soul. Whether a person is Muslim, Christian, Hindu, Buddhist, or of no religion at all.

If that soul seeks God and sincerity longs for truth and opens itself to love. Then that soul is my sister, my brother, and a child of the living God. This movement will not destroy the religions of the world, but will fulfill their deepest truths. It is the heart of all true religion to love God and love one another.

The new world religion will gather these truths and center them not in belief systems, but in the living experience of Divine Love. Peace begins in the soul. Peace on earth does not begin with government. It begins in you. When divine love fills your soul, it purifies your thoughts, softens your heart, and empowers your actions.

You no longer seek to harm, to dominate, to win at the expense of others. Instead, you seek to uplift, to heal, to bless. To serve as more souls receive this Love, the vibration of the earth itself will change. Violence will give way to understanding. Competition will yield to cooperation. Hatred will be dissolved by compassion.

This is not a dream. It is a spiritual law. Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God. Matthew 5:9 And what is a peacemaker, but one who carries divine love in the heart and shares it with the world, the transformation of the soul. This love is not a metaphor or a poetic idea.

It is a real spiritual substance that enters the soul and changes its very nature. It is this Love that brings immortality, it is this love that opens the gates of the celestial heavens, where the soul lives forever, in joy, light, and communion with the Father. This is the New Birth, the transformation of the soul through the inflowing of Divine Love.

This is salvation, not merely from sin or suffering, but from separation, from not knowing who you truly are and who God truly is. I am with you. Still my beloved. I walk with you still. I am not confined to history or scripture. My spirit is active in the world drawing all hearts who will listen to the truth of Divine Love.

I speak now through these messages, through your prayers, and even through the quiet whisper in your soul that says there is more. There is Divine Love. There is peace. Let your heart be open. Ask the Father for His Love. Let it flow into you and through you into the world. Become a light in the darkness. A messenger of this new spiritual awakening, not with words alone, but with the radiance of a transformed soul.

This is how peace shall come. This is the path of the new world religion, not by conquest, not by creed, but by Love. Divine healing, eternal Love.

I am Jesus, your brother and your guide, and I love you with a love beyond your knowing.

I listen always. I answer always, and I call you now to walk with me in this new way.

CHAPTER THREE

THE NEW BIRTH TRANSFORMATION

My beloved friends, I speak to you now of the New Birth—a profound transformation that takes place when you open your soul to receive God's Divine Love. This transformation is not merely a change in behavior or belief; it is the very recreation of your soul in the likeness of God's Divine nature. I come to you as your loving brother, your guide, and your friend, to help you understand how this New Birth is the most precious and powerful gift you can receive, leading you to eternal unity with God.

You may have heard me say, "You must be born again" (John 3:7). This statement speaks of the New Birth, which is not about rituals, doctrines, or outward acts. It is about the inner transformation of your soul—a transformation that occurs when you receive God's Divine Love. Through this love, your soul is made new, lifted beyond its natural state, and brought into harmony with the Divine. It is the key to experiencing true peace, joy, and fulfillment, as well as eternal life in the Celestial Heavens.

What Is the New Birth?

The New Birth is the process through which the soul is transformed by the inflowing of Divine Love. It is not something that can be achieved through your own efforts, nor is it something that can be earned by good deeds or adherence to religious practices. It is a gift from God, freely given to anyone who sincerely desires it. When you open your heart to receive this Love, the very substance of God flows into your soul, changing its nature and making it Divine.

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Corinthians 5:17). This New Birth is the fulfillment of God's promise to make all things new, to lift each soul into a state of Divine Love and harmony. It is through this process that you become truly at one with God, experiencing a closeness and intimacy that cannot be found through any other means.

The Nature of Soul Transformation

The transformation that takes place during the New Birth is unlike any other change you may experience. It is not merely a shift in perspective or an improvement in character—it is a complete re-creation of your soul. As you receive more of God's Divine Love, your soul begins to take on the qualities of the Divine. You become more compassionate, more forgiving, more loving, and more in tune with God's will.

This transformation is not instantaneous; it is a gradual process that unfolds as you continue to open your heart and receive more of God's Love. Each time you pray for Divine Love and sincerely long for it, God responds, and your soul is further transformed. Over time, the old limitations and weaknesses of the human condition are replaced by the Divine qualities that come from God's essence.

"Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit" (John 3:6). The New Birth is the birth of your spirit into a new state of being—a state that is no longer bound by the limitations of the material world but is instead aligned with the eternal and Divine. It is through this transformation that you become a true child of God, capable of experiencing the fullness of His Love and joy.

Divine Love: The Source of Transformation

The power behind the New Birth is Divine Love—the very essence of God that transforms and uplifts the soul. Human love, as beautiful and meaningful as it is, cannot bring about this transformation. Only Divine Love has the power to change the nature of your soul, to make it Divine, and to bring you into perfect harmony with God.

"God is Love" (1 John 4:8), and it is this Love that He desires to share with each of His children. When you receive Divine Love, you are not merely feeling God's affection—you are receiving His very Substance, His essence, into your soul. This Love is what makes the New Birth possible, for it is through Divine Love that the soul is elevated beyond its natural state and made fit for eternal life in the Celestial Heavens.

How to Experience the New Birth

The path to the New Birth is simple, yet profound: pray with all sincerity for God's Divine Love to enter your soul. This prayer is not about reciting words; it is about the deep longing of your heart to know God, to be close to Him, and to be transformed by His love. When you pray with this longing, God hears you, and He responds by sending His love into your soul.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). This promise is the key to the New Birth. When you ask for Divine Love with a sincere heart, God will give it to you. As you continue to pray and open yourself to this Love, you will begin to feel its presence within you—a warmth, a peace, and a joy that surpasses all understanding. This is the beginning of your soul's transformation.

Take time each day to be still, to open your heart to God, and to express your desire for His Love. Let go of any doubts, fears, or feelings of unworthiness, and trust that God loves you deeply and unconditionally. As you receive more of His Love, you will begin to notice changes in your thoughts, your emotions, and your actions. You will feel a greater sense of compassion for others, a deeper peace within yourself, and a growing desire to live in harmony with God's will.

The New Birth and Eternal Life

The New Birth is the key to eternal life. It is not enough to simply believe in God or to follow religious practices—true salvation comes through the transformation of the soul by Divine Love. "Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life" (John 3:36). To believe in me, my friends, is to believe in the message I brought—the message of Divine Love and the New Birth. It is through this love that you are made fit for the Celestial Heavens, where you will experience the fullness of God's presence and joy for all eternity.

Eternal life is not merely an existence without end—it is a life filled with the love, joy, and peace of God. It is a life in which you are fully united with the Creator, where there is no separation, no fear, and no sorrow. This is the life that God desires for each of His children, and it is available to you through the New Birth. By opening your heart to Divine Love and allowing it to transform you, you are preparing your soul for the eternal joy of the Celestial Heavens.

An Invitation to Transformation

My dear friends, I invite you to embark on this journey of transformation—to open your hearts to the New Birth and to experience the profound change that comes from receiving God's Divine Love. This is not a path of obligation or fear; it is a path of joy, of peace, and of true fulfillment. God's Love is waiting for you, ready to fill your soul and make you new.

You are not alone on this journey. I am here, guiding you, and our loving Father is always ready to embrace you with open arms. The New Birth is the greatest gift you can receive, for it is the key to becoming truly at one with God, to experiencing the fullness of His Love, and to living in eternal joy. All you need to do is ask, to open your heart, and to allow God's Love to transform you.

"Love never fails" (1 Corinthians 13:8). Divine Love is the answer to every longing of your soul. It is the path to true happiness, the key to eternal life, and the greatest gift you could ever receive. Come, my friends, and let us walk this path together. Let us open our hearts to Divine Love and allow it to transform us, to lift us beyond our human limitations, and to bring us into perfect harmony with God.

May you always know that you are loved, that you are worthy, and that the New Birth is available to you, now and forever.

CHAPTER FOUR

A SPIRITUAL JOURNEY

My beloved, draw near and listen with the ears of your soul, for I come not as a distant figure of the past but as your living friend, your elder brother, your guide into the eternal embrace of our Father.

You have heard the words "born again," but I tell you—there is a deeper, richer reality unfolding within you now. It is not merely a birth once experienced and forgotten, but a New Birthing, an ongoing sacred process of your soul becoming infused with the Love of our Heavenly Father. This is not only a moment but a movement—an ever-deepening transformation.

As I spoke long ago to Nicodemus, a man well-learned yet spiritually uncertain: “Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” — John 3:3

What I meant then, and still mean now, is this: you must receive into your soul the Divine Love that flows freely from the heart of God. This Love is not like human love, conditional or fleeting. It is the very Essence of the Father, offered to you not because you have earned it, but because you are deeply, eternally loved.

The New Birthing Is Now

You may ask, “But Lord, how do I know if I am being born anew?” And I answer you: if you have ever turned your heart toward the Father in humility and desire, asking Him to fill you with His Love—not for reward, not for status, but simply because you long for His Presence—then you have already begun. The seed of the New Birth has been planted.

But more than a seed, I speak of New Birthing—an active unfolding, a continual transformation. Just as the day turns into night and again into day, your soul too is ever being renewed by Divine Love if you open yourself to it again and again.

“Though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.” — 2 Corinthians 4:16

Do not imagine this as a one-time moment that passes you by. The birthing of the soul into its divine potential is an eternal progression. It is New Birthing—not new birth alone, but the living, breathing, becoming of your soul into God’s own likeness.

Let the Love Flow

This transformation is not achieved through ceremonies, dogmas, or rituals. I did not come to establish religion, but to offer relationship—a living communion between your heart and the Father’s.

I want you to know this with all your being: Divine Love is not earned. It is received—as a gift. Freely offered. Overflowing. It enters through sincere, humble prayer. It flows when your soul yearns and reaches up with childlike trust.

“Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.” — Matthew 7:7

Yes, my beloved, knock at the door of the Father’s heart—and it will be opened. Not reluctantly, not with judgment, but with joy. The angels rejoice each time a soul opens to Divine Love. For in that moment, Heaven touches Earth.

The New Heart

In this ongoing birthing, something marvelous happens within you. As Divine Love enters your soul, it gives you a new heart.

This is what the prophets of old glimpsed when they spoke the promises of the Father:

“A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you.” — Ezekiel 36:26

The new heart is not merely an improved version of the old. It is not a reformed personality. It is a new essence, Divine in Substance. Your soul becomes a mirror of the Father's own Being. Sin and error begin to fall away, not through fear, but because Love has taken their place.

This is what I came to reveal—not only through words, but through the outpouring of my own soul filled with this very Love. I am the first to be so transformed by the inflowing of the Father's Essence. And now, I say with arms open wide: what I have received, you too may receive.

A Friendship That Walks With You

You are not alone in this journey. I walk with you—not above, not beyond, but with you. I am not a remote judge; I am your companion, your elder brother. I know the struggles of the soul, for I, too, walked the Earth, faced temptation, and sought the Father's Love with fervent prayer.

You may falter. You may grow weary. But never doubt that the Father's Love is reaching for you even in those moments.

“Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” —
Matthew 11:28

Rest in Me. Rest in the assurance that you are loved, now and always—not for what you do, but for who you are. A soul destined for divinity.

Becoming Like the Father

The end of this journey, though it stretches beyond the veil of this life, is glorious. For through New Birthing, your soul will come to reflect the very nature of God—not merely to stand before Him, but to become one with Him in Love, in joy, in immortal life.

“Beloved, now are we the sons of God... when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.” — 1 John 3:2

This is not mere symbolism. This is truth. This is your divine destiny—not through merit, not through fear, but through Love.

Your Prayer is the Key

Let me leave you with this, dear soul: prayer is your gateway. Not lofty speech, but heartfelt yearning. Simply say:

“Father, I long for Your Divine Love. Let it flow into my soul. Make me new. Let me be reborn—not just once, but always. Let Your Love be the fire that transforms me, and let Jesus, my brother, walk with me.”

I will hear you. The Father will hear you. And the New Birthing will continue—day by day, moment by moment—until you shine with the brightness of Heaven itself.

This is your beginning. The New Birthing has already begun.

Keep opening. Keep receiving.

I am with you.

With all my love,

— Jesus

CHAPTER FIVE

KNOW THE TRUTH - BE FREE

My beloved friends, today I want to speak to you about truth—how to know it, how to recognize it, and how to allow it to transform your life. We live in a world where many voices claim to speak the truth, where opinions and doctrines often compete for your attention. In the midst of all this noise, it can be challenging to discern what is true and what is not. I am here to help you understand how you can come to know the truth for yourself, not through the opinions of others, but through your own experience, guided by the Divine Love that flows from God.

"Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free" (John 8:32). These words are a promise to each of you. The truth is not something that is hidden or unattainable—it is available to everyone who sincerely seeks it. The truth that I speak of is not merely intellectual knowledge or religious doctrine. It is the living truth of God's love, a truth that is experienced in the heart and soul, a truth that brings freedom, peace, and joy.

WHAT IS - The Source of All Truth

The first step in knowing the truth is to understand that all truth comes from God. God is the source of all that is true, all that is good, and all that is loving. The more you align yourself with God, the more you will come to understand the truth. God's truth is not found in rigid doctrines or in the judgmental teachings that often cause fear and division. It is found in the experience of His Divine Love, which brings enlightenment, wisdom, and understanding.

"But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth" (John 16:13). The Spirit of truth is God's presence within you, guiding you, helping you discern what is real and what is false. When you open your heart to God and receive His Divine Love, the Spirit of truth becomes active within you, giving you insights that go beyond human understanding. This is why the transformation of the soul through Divine Love is so important—it is through this transformation that you come into direct contact with God's truth.

The Role of the Heart in Knowing the Truth

Many people believe that truth is something that must be understood with the mind, something that can be proven or logically explained. But I tell you, the deepest truths are not found in the mind—they are found in the heart. When you receive Divine Love, your soul becomes attuned to the truth, and your heart becomes a compass that guides you toward what is real and genuine.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God" (Matthew 5:8). The purity of the heart is key to knowing the truth. When your heart is filled with love—when you are free from hatred, prejudice, and fear—you become open to the truth of God's presence. It is through the heart that you come to see and know God, and it is through the heart that you come to understand the truth of His love for you.

To know the truth, you must be willing to let go of preconceived notions, to set aside your ego, and to approach God with humility and sincerity. It is only when you are willing to be open, to be vulnerable, and to allow God to guide you, that you will begin to experience the truth in its fullness.

Prayer as a Path to Truth

One of the most powerful ways to come to know the truth is through prayer. Prayer is not simply asking for things; it is a way of opening your heart to God, of expressing your desire to know Him and to be guided by His love. When you pray for Divine Love, you are also praying for enlightenment, for the ability to see the truth clearly, and for the wisdom to understand it.

"If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you" (James 1:5). When you pray with sincerity, God will give you the wisdom you need. He will guide you to the truth, not through fear or coercion, but through the gentle prompting of His love. The more you open yourself to God in prayer, the more you will come to understand the truth, and the more you will feel the presence of the Spirit of truth within you.

Testing the Truth by Its Fruits

Another way to know the truth is to test it by its fruits. "By their fruit you will recognize them" (Matthew 7:16). True teachings, true understanding, and true love will always produce good fruit—peace, joy, compassion, and harmony. If a teaching or belief leads to fear, division, hatred, or judgment, it is not from God. The truth of God brings unity, healing, and love. It uplifts the soul and helps you grow closer to the Divine.

When you are faced with different teachings or beliefs, ask yourself: Does this bring me closer to God? Does it help me love others more deeply? Does it bring me peace? If the answer is yes, then you are on the path of truth. If the answer is no, then it may be time to reconsider whether that teaching is truly aligned with God's love and truth.

Divine Love as the Ultimate Truth

The ultimate truth that I came to reveal is Divine Love. This love is the essence of God, and it is the key to all spiritual growth and understanding. Divine Love is not just a concept or an idea—it is a living, transformative force that changes your soul, elevates you, and brings you into harmony with God. When you receive Divine Love, you are experiencing the truth of God's presence in a way that goes beyond words or explanations.

"I am the way and the truth and the life" (John 14:6). When I spoke these words, I was not referring to doctrines or dogmas—I was speaking of the path of Divine Love that I came to show. This path is the way to know the truth, to experience the fullness of life, and to be united with God.

Divine Love is the truth that sets you free from fear, from doubt, and from the limitations of the human condition. It is the truth that brings you into the joy and peace of the Celestial Heavens.

The Importance of Sincerity

To know the truth, you must approach God with sincerity. Truth is not given to those who are insincere or who seek it for selfish reasons. It is given to those who genuinely desire to know God, to be close to Him, and to live in harmony with His will. When you are sincere in your desire to know the truth, God will reveal it to you in ways that are personal and meaningful. He will speak to your heart, and you will know that what you are experiencing is real and true.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). This is God's promise to you. If you sincerely seek the truth, if you open your heart and ask God to guide you, He will lead you to the truth. He will open the door to understanding, and you will experience the joy and peace that come from knowing the truth of His love.

An Invitation to Seek the Truth

My dear friends, I invite you to embark on a journey of seeking the truth—a truth that is not found in rigid doctrines or human judgments, but in the Divine Love that God offers to each of you. Open your hearts, pray for Divine Love, and allow the Spirit of truth to guide you. Be willing to let go of fear, to approach God with humility, and to allow His love to lead you to a deeper understanding of what is real and true.

The truth that God offers is not complicated—it is simple, pure, and full of love. It is a truth that brings freedom, that uplifts the soul, and that brings you into harmony with the Creator. Come to God with an open heart, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.

May you always seek the truth with sincerity, may you always be guided by the Spirit of truth, and may you always know the peace and joy that come from living in the light of God's love. Come, my friends, let us walk this path together. Let us seek the truth, let us receive Divine Love, and let us find the freedom and fulfillment that come from knowing and living in the truth of God's presence.

CHAPTER SIX

GOD - SUPREME LOVING PARENT

My beloved friends, today I want to speak to you about God's true nature—a nature that is often misunderstood. I want you to know that God is not a distant or wrathful being, nor a judge waiting to condemn you for your mistakes. God is, first and foremost, a Loving and Merciful Par- ent—a Father who cherishes you, a Mother who comforts you, a Divine Source who only wishes for your joy, growth, and fulfillment. I am here as your friend, your brother, and your guide, to help you understand that God's Love for you is unconditional, limitless, and ever-present.

Many of you may have grown up with an image of God as a stern judge—someone who is quick to anger and whose love must be earned through strict adherence to rules and rituals. But I tell you, this image is far from the truth. God's Heart is overflowing with compassion, and His greatest desire is to share His Divine Love with every one of His children. God is always ready to forgive, always eager to embrace, and always longing to bring you closer to Him.

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). These words reflect the Heart of God—a Heart that is filled with mercy, understanding, and an unwavering desire to bring you comfort and peace. When you turn to God, you are not met with judgment; you are met with open arms, with a Love that heals, forgives, and renews.

God's Unconditional Love

The Love that God has for you is not conditional. It is not based on your accomplishments, your adherence to religious practices, or your ability to be "perfect." Divine Love is a gift freely given to anyone who sincerely longs for it. Just as a parent loves their child unconditionally, regardless of their mistakes, God loves you with a depth and intensity that is beyond human comprehension.

"But because of His great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved" (Ephesians 2:4-5). God's love is not earned; it is a Gift of Grace. It is a Love that sees beyond your flaws, beyond your mistakes, and recognizes the divine potential within you. God's Love is there for you in your moments of triumph as well as in your moments of struggle and doubt.

When you truly understand that God is a Loving and Merciful Parent, it changes the way you relate to Him. Instead of feeling fear or shame, you begin to feel a deep sense of trust and comfort. You realize that you can come to God just as you are—with your fears, your wounds, and your imperfections. You do not need to pretend to be someone you are not, nor do you need to hide your struggles. God knows you intimately, and He Loves you completely.

The Nature of God's Mercy

God's Mercy is an expression of His Divine Love. Mercy means that God does not hold your past mistakes against you. He does not look at you with disappointment or anger; instead, He looks at you with compassion and understanding. God knows the challenges you face, the burdens you carry, and the weaknesses that sometimes lead you astray. And rather than condemning you, He longs to help you, to guide you, and to lift you out of whatever darkness you may find yourself in.

"His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning" (Lamentations 3:22-23). Every day is a new beginning in God's eyes. No matter what has happened in your past, no matter the mistakes you may have made, God's Mercy is always available to you. He is always ready to forgive, to heal, and to help you start anew. This is the nature of a loving Parent—one who desires your happiness above all else and is willing to do whatever it takes to help you grow and thrive.

How God's Love Transforms Us

When you begin to understand and accept that God is a Loving and Merciful Parent, it changes not only your relationship with Him but also the way you see yourself and others. Divine Love has the power to transform your soul, to bring about a New Birth that elevates you into a state of greater compassion, joy, and unity with God. When you receive Divine Love, you are filled with a sense of worthiness, of being deeply cherished, and of knowing that you are not alone.

"See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God!" (1 John 3:1). You are not just a creation of God; you are His beloved child. This means that you are never abandoned, never forgotten, and never beyond the reach of His Love. As you receive Divine Love, it begins to change you from within. You start to see yourself as God sees you—worthy, valuable, and capable of great love and compassion.

This transformation also extends to how you see others. When you know God as a Loving Parent, you begin to see all people as your brothers and sisters, equally Loved by God. You start to recognize the divine potential in each person, even those who may have wronged you or caused you pain. Divine Love allows you to forgive, to let go of resentment, and to see others through the eyes of compassion and understanding.

A Relationship Built on Trust and Love

The relationship that God desires with you is one built on trust and love, not fear or obligation. He wants you to come to Him with your joys and your sorrows, your successes and your failures. Just as a child runs to their parent for comfort or to share their excitement, God wants you to come to Him with everything that is in your heart. He is always ready to listen, to comfort, and to guide you.

"Cast all your anxiety on Him because He cares for you" (1 Peter 5:7). God cares deeply for you. He understands the challenges you face and the burdens you carry, and He wants to help you bear them. When you trust in God's Love and Mercy, you find a sense of peace that goes beyond understanding. You realize that you are not alone in your struggles, that you have a Loving Parent who is always there to support you and to guide you.

An Invitation to Experience God's Love

My dear friends, I invite you to open your hearts to the Love and Mercy of God. Allow yourself to experience the depth of His compassion and the warmth of His embrace. You are not alone, and you are never beyond the reach of His Love. No matter where you are on your journey, no matter the mistakes you may have made, God is always ready to welcome you home.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these" (Mark 10:14). Come to God with the heart of a child—open, trusting, and full of hope. Let go of the fear and the doubts that hold you back, and allow yourself to be embraced by the Love of your Divine Parent. You are His beloved child, and His greatest desire is to share His Love with you, to see you grow, and to bring you into perfect harmony with Him.

May you always know that you are Loved, that you are cherished, and that God's Mercy is available to you, now and forever. Open your heart to Him, and let His Love transform you, heal you, and bring you the peace and joy that only a Divine Loving Parent can provide.

CHAPTER SEVEN

POWERFUL PRAYER FOR DIVINE LOVE

Our Father, Mother God, Who - Art in Heaven,

I/We recognize that You are all Holy, Loving, and Merciful and that we are the children of Your care, and that we are the greatest of Your creations and the most wonderful of all Your handy works and the objects of Your great Soul's Love and tenders care.

That Your will is that we become One with You and partake of Your great Love, which You have bestowed upon us through Your Mercy and desire that we become in truth Your children through Love,

I/we pray that You will open up our souls to the inflowing of Your Love, and that then will come Your Holy Spirit to bring into our souls Your Divine Love in great abundance.

Until our soul shall be transformed into the very essence of Your Soul Self, and then may come to us faith, such faith as will cause us to realize that we are truly Your children, At One with You in very substance and not in image only. Let us have such faith as will cause us to know that You are our Father, Mother, God, and the bestower of every good and perfect gift.

Only we ourselves can prevent Your Love from changing us from the mortal to the immortal. Let us never cease to realize that Your Love is waiting for each and all of us and that when we come to You in faith, an earnest aspiration, Your Love will never be withholden from us.

Keep us in the light of Your love every hour and moment of our lives, and help us to overcome all temptations of the flesh and the influence of the powers of the evil ones, which so constantly surround us and endeavor to turn our thoughts away from You to the pleasures and allurements of this world.

I/We thank You for Your Love and the privilege of receiving it, and

I/we believe that You are our Parent, the Loving Father, Mother, and Merciful God who smiles upon us in our weakness.

Who is always ready to help us and bring us to Your arms of Love.

I/We pray this with all the earnestness and sincere longings of our souls and trusting in Your Love.

I/We give You all the glory, honor, and love that our finite souls can give . . .

CHAPTER EIGHT

DIVINE LOVE & NATURAL LOVE

My beloved friends, I come to you not as a distant or untouchable figure, but as your loving brother, way-shower, and friend. I wish to speak to you today about Divine Love, the essence of our Creator and the greatest gift available to humankind. I know that you seek something deeper, something lasting that brings true peace and fulfillment. Let me share with you what Divine Love is and why it is the key to everything your soul longs for.

The world often tells you that love is something you must earn—something conditional, measured by how much you give or how well you behave. But I tell you, my friends, Divine Love is different. This love is not earned by good deeds or by following rules; it is a gift, freely given by our Father to every soul that longs for it. It is a love that transforms your very nature, that lifts you beyond the limitations of your humanity and fills your soul with light, joy, and peace.

"God is love, and whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them" (1 John 4:16). This simple but powerful truth captures the very essence of Divine Love. God does not merely possess love—God is love. When you receive this Divine Love into your soul, you become more like God, more aligned with His divine nature. You feel the warmth of His presence, and you come to understand that you are not alone—that you are deeply, completely, and unconditionally loved.

The Difference Between Divine Love and Human Love

Many of you have experienced human love in its various forms—the love of a parent, a friend, a partner. Human love is beautiful and precious, and it brings great joy. But human love, as wonderful as it is, is still limited. It is often conditioned on how others treat us, or on circumstances that are beyond our control. It can bring pain, disappointment, and sometimes even a sense of loss.

Divine Love, on the other hand, knows no limitations. It is boundless, unconditional, and eternal. This love does not depend on your worthiness or perfection—it is given simply because you are a child of God, and you are worthy by virtue of your existence. Divine Love changes the very essence of your soul, elevating it beyond what you could achieve on your own. It is through this love that you are able to transcend your weaknesses and fears, and become truly at one with the Creator.

When you open your heart to Divine Love, you allow God's very essence to flow into your soul. This love is not a mere sentiment or an abstract idea—it is a living, dynamic force that transforms you from within. It is what I call the New Birth, where your soul is made anew, born of the very substance of God. "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Corinthians 5:17). This New Birth is not about adhering to doctrines or following rituals—it is about the real and personal transformation of your soul through Divine Love.

Divine Love Is Available to All

This Divine Love is not reserved for a select few. It is not for those who are already "holy" or without fault. It is for every single one of you—for those who feel broken, for those who have made mistakes, for those who feel unworthy or unloved. God's love does not discriminate, nor does it judge. Our Father is eager to share His love with anyone who desires it, regardless of where you have been or what you have done.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). This is a promise, my friends. All you need to do is ask, and God will pour His love into your heart. You do not need to prove your worth or meet any conditions—you simply need to open your heart and sincerely long for this love. When you do, you will feel God's presence, His tenderness, and His desire to be close to you.

Many of you may feel that you are not worthy of this kind of love. Perhaps you have made mistakes or feel burdened by guilt. I want you to understand that God's love is not based on your past. God sees beyond your faults and imperfections—He sees the potential of your soul, the beauty that lies within, waiting to be awakened and transformed by His Divine Love. The moment you turn to God with an open heart, His love is there, ready to embrace you.

The Transformative Power of Divine Love

Why is Divine Love so important? Because it is the only thing that can truly transform the soul. Human love can inspire, uplift, and bring comfort, but only Divine Love has the power to change the very nature of who you are. It is through Divine Love that you become more like God, more aligned with His will, and more capable of expressing the qualities of compassion, kindness, and wisdom that are part of His divine nature.

I have said before, "You must be born again" (John 3:7). This New Birth is not about changing your beliefs or following religious rituals—it is about receiving the substance of God's love into your soul and allowing it to change you. Divine Love is the key to eternal life, to becoming truly at one with God. It is the path to peace, joy, and fulfillment that nothing in this world can provide.

How to Receive Divine Love

The first step to receiving Divine Love is simple: pray. Pray to God with all the sincerity of your heart, asking for His love to enter your soul. This prayer is not about words; it is about the longing of your heart. When you sincerely desire to receive Divine Love, God will hear you, and He will respond. You will begin to feel His presence, and you will know that His love is real.

Take time each day to sit quietly, to open your heart, and to express your desire for God's love. Let go of your fears, your doubts, and any feelings of unworthiness. Trust that God loves you deeply and unconditionally, and that He wants to share His love with you. As you pray, you will begin to feel a warmth in your heart, a sense of peace that goes beyond understanding. This is the presence of God, the beginning of your soul's transformation.

Living in Divine Love

Receiving Divine Love is not a one-time event—it is a continuous process of opening your heart to God and allowing His love to flow into you. As you receive more of this love, you will notice changes in your life. You will feel more compassion for others, more patience, more joy. You will find that old fears and anxieties begin to fade, replaced by a sense of peace and security that comes from knowing that you are deeply loved by your Creator.

Divine Love will also help you to see others through God's eyes. You will begin to recognize the divine potential in every person, to see beyond their faults and weaknesses, and to love them as God loves them. This love will transform not only your relationship with God but also your relationships with those around you. It will bring healing, understanding, and unity.

An Invitation to You

I invite you, my dear friends, to open your hearts to this Divine Love. You are not alone on this journey. I am here, guiding you, and our loving Father is always ready to embrace you with open arms. The love you seek, the peace you desire, and the fulfillment you long for are all available to you through Divine Love. All you need to do is ask, to open your heart, and to allow God to fill you with His love.

Remember, "Love never fails" (1 Corinthians 13:8). Divine Love is the answer to every longing of your soul. It is the path to true happiness, the key to eternal life, and the greatest gift you could ever receive. Come, my friends, and let us walk this path together. Let us open our hearts to Divine Love and allow it to transform us, to lift us beyond our human limitations, and to bring us into perfect harmony with God.

May you always know that you are loved, that you are worthy, and that Divine Love is available to you, now . . .

CHAPTER NINE

DIVINE LAWS

My beloved friends, today I wish to share with you the divine laws that govern the universe—laws that are essential to your spiritual progression and ultimate fulfillment. These laws are not arbitrary rules set by an authoritarian God, but rather expressions of God's Love and wisdom, designed to guide you on your journey toward Divine Love and spiritual harmony. Understanding and aligning yourself with these laws will help you grow closer to God and experience the joy and peace that come from living in unity with His will.

God's laws are like the laws of nature—they are consistent, dependable, and always at work. Just as gravity keeps you grounded and the sun provides light and warmth, these spiritual laws guide the growth of your soul, helping you rise beyond the limitations of the material world. They are pathways that, when followed, lead to your ultimate happiness and transformation.

The Law of Divine Love

The most important law I want to share with you is the Law of Divine Love. This law is the foundation of the growth and transformation of the soul. It is the key to true fulfillment. God's greatest desire is to share His Divine Love with you, to transform your soul into something Divine and capable of experiencing the fullness of His presence. Divine Love is not something that can be earned through good deeds or religious rituals; it is a gift, freely given to anyone who sincerely longs for it.

For God so loved the world that He gave His Own Divine Essence. This law is the core of my mission—I came to show you the way to receive Divine Love and experience the transformation of your soul. When you open your heart to God and ask for His Love, you align yourself with this fundamental law, allowing God's essence to fill and transform you.

The Law of Divine Love teaches us that the path to salvation is not found in sacrifice or fear, but in the openness of our hearts and the sincere desire to be close to God. When you pray for Divine Love, God responds by pouring His Love into your soul, gradually transforming it into something beautiful, pure, and Divine. This is the New Birth—a rebirth of the soul that brings you into perfect harmony with God.

The Law of Compensation

Another important law is the Law of Compensation. This law is often understood as the law of cause and effect, or what some might call karma. It is the principle that every action has consequences—both in the material world and in the spiritual world. When you act in harmony with love, kindness, and compassion, you create positive effects that uplift your soul and the souls of those around you. Conversely, when you act in ways that are harmful or selfish, you create negative effects that must be atoned for.

"Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows" (Galatians 6:7). The Law of Compensation ensures that every action, whether good or bad, brings about its natural consequences. This law is not about punishment but about learning and growth. When you experience the consequences of your actions, you have the opportunity to learn, to make amends, and to align yourself more closely with God's will.

Through the Law of Compensation, God provides a way for you to grow, to learn from your mistakes, and to ultimately find your way back to Him. It is a law of justice, but also a law of mercy, for it allows you to understand the effects of your actions and to choose a better path. By aligning yourself with love and seeking Divine Love, you can overcome the negative effects of past actions and move forward on your spiritual journey.

The Law of Attraction

The Law of Attraction is another spiritual law that plays a significant role in your souls progression. This law states that like attracts like—that your thoughts, emotions, and the condition of your soul will attract similar energies and influences. When your heart is filled with love, kindness, and a sincere longing for God, you will attract positive, loving influences into your life, including higher spiritual beings who are eager to help you on your journey.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). When you seek Divine Love and align your heart with God's will, you attract God's presence into your life. The Law of Attraction ensures that when you focus on love, compassion, and spiritual growth, you will draw those very qualities to yourself, creating an environment that supports your soul's progression.

Conversely, when you harbor negative thoughts or emotions—such as fear, anger, or resentment—you attract similar negative influences, which can hinder your spiritual growth. This is why it is so important to guard your thoughts and to focus on the love that God offers. By aligning yourself with positive, loving thoughts and desires, you create a spiritual environment that supports your growth and draws you closer to God.

Aligning with the Divine Laws

Understanding these Divine laws is the first step, but living in harmony with them is what truly brings about transformation. The Law of Divine Love invites you to open your heart and receive God's Love, allowing it to transform you from within. The Law of Compensation teaches you to take responsibility for your actions and to learn from your experiences, using them as opportunities for growth. The Law of Attraction encourages you to focus on love, kindness, and spiritual longing, attracting positive influences that support your journey.

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind" (Matthew 22:37). To align yourself with these Divine laws is to love God with your entire being, to seek His presence, and to live in a way that reflects His Love. It is a journey of transformation, one that leads you away from fear, doubt, and separation, and brings you into the fullness of God's Love and joy.

The Role of Free Will

It is important to understand that free will plays a crucial role in your spiritual progression.

God has given you the gift of free will so that you may choose your own path. You are not forced to follow these laws, nor are you compelled to seek Divine Love. The choice is always yours. God's Love is always available, but it must be sought sincerely and willingly. Only when you use your free will to align yourself with these Divine laws can you experience the fullness of the transformation that God desires for you.

"I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live" (Deuteronomy 30:19). The choice to align yourself with God's laws is a choice for life, for love, and for spiritual growth. It is a choice that leads to true happiness, peace, and fulfillment. God will never force you, but He is always ready to guide you, to support you, and to share His Love with you when you are ready to receive it.

An Invitation to Live by the Divine Laws

My dear friends, I invite you to embrace these Divine laws as guides on your spiritual journey. They are not meant to be burdensome or restrictive; they are pathways to freedom, joy, and eternal life. By understanding and living in harmony with the Law of Divine Love, the Law of Compensation, and the Law of Attraction, you will find yourself growing closer to God, experiencing the peace and fulfillment that come from being aligned with His will.

God's Love for you is boundless, and His desire is for you to experience the fullness of that Love. Open your heart, seek Divine Love, and allow these Divine laws to guide you on your journey. May you always know that you are loved, that you are capable of great transformation, and that the path to spiritual fulfillment is open to you. Come, my friends, let us walk this path together. Let us align ourselves with God's Divine laws, let us receive His Love, and let us find the joy and peace that come from living in harmony with the Creator.

CHAPTER TEN

ROLE OF SOUL & SPIRIT BODY

My beloved friends, today I want to share with you an understanding of the soul and the spirit body, two essential aspects of your spiritual existence that are deeply interconnected. The relationship between the soul and the spirit body is profound, and understanding this relationship will help you grasp the full picture of your spiritual journey and your eternal destiny. It will also help you appreciate how the choices you make in this life affect your soul and the experience that awaits you in the spirit world.

The soul is the true essence of who you are. It is the part of you that is eternal, the seat of your emotions, desires, and capacity for love. The spirit body is the vehicle through which the soul expresses itself, both in the material world and in the spirit world. The spirit body is not made of physical flesh and bones, but of a finer substance that is attuned to spiritual energies. Together, the soul and the spirit body form a complete spiritual being, capable of experiencing the love, joy, and presence of God.

The Nature of the Soul

The soul is the most important part of your being. It is the image of God and the divine spark potential within you, the aspect of your existence that is capable of connecting with God and receiving His Divine Love. Unlike the physical body, which is temporary, the soul is eternal. It is the part of you that carries your true identity, your unique qualities, and your potential for Divine transformation.

"Then the Lord God formed a man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being" (Genesis 2:7). The breath of life that God breathed into humanity is the soul—the essence of life that makes you who you are. It is the soul that has the capacity to grow, to evolve, and to be transformed by Divine Love. When you pray for Divine Love and receive it, your soul is changed, lifted, and made more like God in nature.

The soul is also the seat of free will. It is through your soul that you make choices, and it is through these choices that you either align yourself with God's will or move away from it. God has given you the gift of free will so that you may choose your own path, and it is through the choices of your soul that you either grow closer to God or create distance from Him.

The Spirit Body

The spirit body is the counterpart to the physical body, but it is of a much finer substance. It is the body in which your soul resides when you are in the spirit world, and it is also present with you while you live in the material world. The spirit body is not visible to the physical eye, but it is just as real as the physical body. It is the vehicle through which your soul interacts with the spiritual realms, and it reflects the true condition of your soul.

"As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead" (James 2:26). The spirit body is what gives life and vitality to the physical body, and when the physical body dies, the spirit body continues to live, carrying the soul into the spirit world. The condition of your spirit body is directly influenced by the condition of your soul. When your soul is filled with Divine Love, your spirit body radiates light, beauty, and harmony. When the soul is burdened by negative emotions or harmful choices, the spirit body reflects this condition as well.

The spirit body is an important part of your spiritual progression, as it allows your soul to experience the spiritual realms and to interact with other spiritual beings. When you pass from the material world to the spirit world, it is the spirit body that carries you forward, and the condition of your spirit body will determine the kind of experiences you have in the spirit world.

The Journey of the Spirit Body After Physical Death

When the physical body dies, the soul and the spirit body continue to live. Death is not the end; it is simply a transition from one state of being to another. In the spirit world, the spirit body becomes the primary vehicle for the soul, and it carries all the qualities, thoughts, emotions, and conditions that the soul has developed during its time on Earth. The state of your soul at the time of your passing will determine the environment you find yourself in when you enter the spirit world.

"In my Father's house are many mansions and rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you?" (John 14:2). The spirit world is vast, with many different levels or spheres, each reflecting the spiritual condition of the souls who dwell there. Souls that are filled with Divine Love and have lived in harmony with God's will will find themselves in beautiful, harmonious surroundings, filled with light and love. These are the Celestial Heavens, where souls that have undergone the New Birth reside in the presence of God.

On the other hand, souls that have not yet received Divine Love or have lived in disharmony with God's laws will find themselves in lower spheres of the spirit world. These are not places of eternal punishment but rather places where the soul can continue to learn, grow, and progress. The spirit world is a place of opportunity, where each soul is given the chance to continue its journey toward God, to learn from its past mistakes, and to seek the Divine Love that will lift it to higher realms.

The Condition of the Soul and Its Impact

The condition of the soul is the key factor that determines the experiences of the spirit body in the spirit world. When your soul is filled with love, compassion, and a sincere desire for God, your spirit body will reflect this condition, and you will be drawn to higher realms where love, light, and peace abound. However, if your soul is burdened by fear, anger, or selfishness, your spirit body will reflect these qualities, and you may find yourself in environments that mirror these lower vibrations.

The good news is that the journey of the soul does not end with physical death. The spirit world is a place of continued growth and opportunity. No matter where you find yourself after passing from the material world, you always have the opportunity to seek God's Love, to pray for Divine Love, and to be transformed. God's Love is always available, and the spirit world is filled with loving spirits who are eager to help those who desire to grow and progress.

The Power of Divine Love in Transforming the Soul

The most powerful force in transforming the soul and the spirit body is Divine Love. When you receive Divine Love, your soul is fundamentally changed, and this transformation is reflected in the condition of your spirit body. Divine Love elevates the soul, purifies it, and makes it more like God in nature. As your soul becomes filled with Divine Love, your spirit body becomes more radiant, more beautiful, and more attuned to the higher realms of the spirit world.

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Corinthians 5:17). This new creation is the result of the New Birth—the transformation of the soul through the reception of Divine Love. This transformation not only affects your experience in the material world but also determines your experience in the spirit world. The more Divine Love you receive, the closer you come to God, and the more glorious your spirit body becomes.

An Invitation to Nurture Your Soul and Spirit Body

My dear friends, I invite you to nurture your soul and your spirit body by seeking Divine Love and aligning yourself with God's will. The choices you make in this life have a profound impact on your soul and will shape your experience in the spirit world. By choosing love, kindness, and compassion, and by praying for Divine Love, you are preparing your soul for a beautiful journey beyond this life—a journey that will bring you closer to God and to the joy and peace of the Celestial Heavens.

Remember that your soul is eternal, and the spirit body is the vessel that carries your soul into the next phase of existence. Take care of your soul by seeking God's Love, by letting go of fear and resentment, and by embracing the path of love and transformation. God's Love is always available to you, and His desire is for you to experience the fullness of that Love, both in this life and in the life to come.

May you always know that you are loved, that your soul is precious and that the journey of your spirit body is one of infinite potential and opportunity. Come, my friends, let us walk this path together. Let us nurture our souls with Divine Love, let us prepare our spirit bodies for the journey ahead, and let us find the joy and peace that come from living in harmony with the Creator.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

TRUE MISSION OF JESUS

My beloved friends, today I want to speak to you about my true mission—a mission that has often been misunderstood and misrepresented. Many have been taught that I came to the world to be a sacrificial savior, to die for the sins of humanity so that you could be reconciled with God. While my death on the cross has been seen as a significant part of my journey, it is not the central reason for my coming. I did not come to be a sacrificial offering but rather to be a way-shower, to reveal the path to Divine Love and spiritual transformation.

The true purpose of my life and teachings was to help you understand that God, our loving Parent, desires a close and intimate relationship with each of His children. My mission was to show you how to receive Divine Love, to guide you in the process of opening your heart to God, and to experience the profound transformation that comes from being filled with this love. Through my words and my actions, I sought to demonstrate the power of Divine Love to change the soul, to bring about a New Birth, and to lead you to eternal life in the Celestial Heavens.

A Way-Shower to Divine Love

"Jesus answered, 'I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me'" (John 14:6). When I spoke these words, I did not mean that salvation could only be found through belief in my sacrifice. What I meant was that the path I showed—the way of Divine Love—is the key to knowing and being united with God. I came to show the way, to be an example of what is possible for every soul when it opens itself to the Divine Love that our Father offers to all.

The Divine Love that I spoke of is the very essence of God, and it is available to every person who sincerely desires it. It is not something that can be earned through good deeds or religious rituals. It is a gift freely given by our Loving Father to anyone who asks for it with a sincere and humble heart. My role was to show you how to open your hearts to this love, how to pray for it, and how to allow it to transform your soul.

The Misconception of Sacrifice

Many have been taught that my death was necessary to atone for the sins of humanity—that without my sacrifice, there could be no forgiveness. But I tell you, my friends, that God is not a wrathful being who demands a blood sacrifice to be reconciled with His children. God is a loving and merciful Parent, and His greatest desire is to share His Divine Love with you. The idea that God required my death as a payment for sin is a misunderstanding of God's true nature and His plan for humanity.

"For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgment of God rather than burnt offerings" (Hosea 6:6). These words from the scriptures reflect the heart of God. He does not seek sacrifice or punishment; He seeks a relationship with each of His children—a relationship built on love, trust, and the desire to grow closer to Him. My death on the cross was not a requirement set by God; it was the result of the opposition I faced from those who misunderstood my teachings and feared the message of love and transformation that I brought.

The Path to Spiritual Salvation

True spiritual salvation is not about believing in my death or adhering to religious doctrines. It is about the transformation of the soul through the reception of Divine Love. When you open your heart to God and sincerely pray for His Love to enter your soul, you begin to experience a profound change. This is what I call the New Birth—a rebirth of the soul into a divine state, where you become more like God, filled with His love, compassion, and joy.

"Very truly I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born again" (John 3:3). The New Birth is the key to entering the Celestial Heavens, the kingdom of God. It is not about following rules or performing rituals; it is about the transformation that takes place when you receive Divine Love into your soul. This love changes your very nature, elevating you beyond the limitations of your humanity and making you fit for eternal life with God.

My Role as a Teacher and Guide

Throughout my life, I sought to teach and guide others to the path of Divine Love. I spoke of the importance of prayer, of coming to God with an open and humble heart, and of allowing His love to fill you. I demonstrated through my actions the power of compassion, forgiveness, and love. My miracles were not meant to glorify myself, but to show the power of God working through love, to inspire faith, and to help others see the potential that lies within each of them when they are connected to God.

"Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls" (Matthew 11:29). My desire was always to help you learn, to guide you gently to the truth of God's Love, and to show you that the burdens you carry can be lifted when you trust in God and allow His Love to transform you. I came not to place heavy demands upon you, but to show you that true fulfillment, peace, and salvation come from being in harmony with God through Divine Love.

Divine Love: The Heart of My Message

At the heart of my message is Divine Love—the Love that God offers to every one of His children. This Love is the key to overcoming the challenges and struggles of life, to healing the wounds of the past, and to finding true and lasting peace. It is the Love that brings about the New Birth and makes you a true child of God, capable of experiencing the joy and fulfillment that comes from being at one with the Creator.

"Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another" (John 13:34). The love that I have for you is the same love that God has for all of His children. It is a love that is patient, kind, forgiving, and unconditional. When you receive Divine Love, you are filled with this same love, and you are able to share it with others. This Love is what will heal the world, bring an end to suffering, and create a world that is in harmony with God's will.

An Invitation to Walk the Path of Love

My dear friends, I invite you to walk the path of Divine Love—to open your hearts to the Love that God is offering you and to allow it to transform your soul. You do not need to earn this love or prove your worthiness; you simply need to ask for it, to desire it, and to be open to receiving it. God is always ready to share His Love with you, to bring you into a closer relationship with Him, and to help you become the divine being that He created you to be.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). This is my promise to you. When you seek Divine Love, when you knock on the door of God's heart, it will always be opened to you. The path I have shown is not a path of sacrifice or suffering, but a path of love, joy, and transformation. It is a path that leads to true spiritual salvation, to eternal life in the Celestial Heavens, and to a deep and abiding relationship with God.

May you always know that you are loved, that you are cherished, and that the path to Divine Love is open to you, now and forever. Come, my friends, and let us walk this path together. Let us open our hearts to the Love of our Father, let us be transformed by His Divine Love, and let us find the peace and joy that come from being at one with Him.

CHAPTER TWELVE

BEYOND ATONEMENT TO AT-ONEMENT

My beloved friends, today I want to speak to you about the true path to salvation—a path that goes beyond the traditional doctrines of sacrificial atonement. Many have been taught that salvation is only possible because of my death on the cross, as if God needed a payment for humanity's sins in order to be reconciled with His children. But I tell you, the true path to salvation lies in the transformation of the soul through the reception of Divine Love. This transformation is the greatest gift that God offers, and it is available to everyone who sincerely desires it.

God, our loving Parent, does not need sacrifices or offerings to forgive. He does not demand a price to be paid for His love. Instead, He offers Divine Love freely, as a gift that transforms and uplifts the soul, bringing it into harmony with Him. The path to salvation is not about earning forgiveness; it is about experiencing the New Birth that comes from opening your heart to God and receiving His Divine Love.

The Gift of Divine Love

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God" (Ephesians 2:8). Salvation is not something you earn; it is a gift given by God out of His boundless love for you. Divine Love is the means by which your soul is transformed and made divine, allowing you to enter the Celestial Heavens and experience eternal life in unity with God.

Divine Love is not the same as human love. It is the very essence of God, a powerful force that changes the nature of the soul itself. When you pray for Divine Love with a sincere heart, God responds by pouring His Love into your soul, filling it with His essence and bringing about a profound transformation. This is the New Birth—a rebirth of the soul into a new state of being, one that is aligned with God and capable of experiencing the fullness of His Love and joy.

Beyond Atonement

Many have been taught that my death on the cross was necessary to atone for the sins of humanity, that without this sacrifice, there could be no forgiveness. But I tell you, God has always been a loving and merciful Parent, eager to forgive and embrace His children. The idea that God required my death as a payment for sin is a misunderstanding of His true nature. God does not need sacrifices to love or forgive; His love is unconditional and eternal.

"I desire mercy, not sacrifice" (Matthew 9:13). These words reflect the true heart of God. He desires a relationship with you, built on love and trust, not fear or obligation. My death was not a requirement set by God—it was the result of the opposition I faced from those who misunderstood my teachings and feared the message of Love and transformation that I brought. The true path to salvation is not found in my death, but in the Love that God offers to each of you.

The Transformation of the Soul

True salvation is the transformation of the soul through the reception of Divine Love. When you open your heart to God and sincerely ask for His Love, you begin to experience a profound change. This transformation is not about adhering to rules or performing rituals—it is about allowing God's love to enter your soul and change you from within. This love elevates you beyond the limitations of your humanity, making you more like God in character and nature.

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Corinthians 5:17). The New Birth is about becoming a new creation, one that is filled with the love, compassion, and joy of God. It is through this transformation that you become truly at one with God, capable of experiencing the peace and fulfillment that come from being in harmony with the Divine.

Divine Love as the Path to Eternal Life

The Celestial Heavens are the ultimate destination for those who have undergone the New Birth and been transformed by Divine Love. Eternal life is not simply an existence without end—it is a life filled with the joy, peace, and Love of God. It is a life in which you are fully united with the Creator, where there is no separation, no fear, and no sorrow. This is the life that God desires for each of His children, and it is available to you through the path of Divine Love.

"Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life" (John 3:36). To believe in me, my friends, is to believe in the message I brought—the message of Divine Love and the New Birth. It is through this love that you are made fit for the Celestial Heavens, where you will experience the fullness of God's presence and joy for all eternity.

The Power of Prayer

The path to salvation begins with prayer—a sincere longing for Divine Love and a desire to be close to God. Prayer is not about reciting words or following a ritual; it is about opening your heart and expressing your deepest desire to be filled with God's Love. When you pray with sincerity, God hears you, and He responds by sending His Love into your soul.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). This promise is the key to receiving Divine Love. When you ask for it, when you seek it with all your heart, God will give it to you. As you continue to pray and open yourself to this Love, you will begin to feel its presence within you—a warmth, a peace, and a joy that surpasses all understanding. This is the beginning of your soul's transformation.

Living in Harmony with God

As you receive more of Divine Love, you will find that your thoughts, emotions, and actions begin to change. You will feel a greater sense of compassion for others, a deeper peace within yourself, and a growing desire to live in harmony with God's will. Divine Love transforms you from within, helping you to let go of fear, resentment, and selfishness, and replacing these with love, forgiveness, and a desire to serve others.

"Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another" (John 13:34). The love that you receive from God is not meant to be kept to yourself—it is meant to be shared with others. As you are transformed by Divine Love, you become a vessel of that love, bringing light and healing to those around you. This is how the world is changed—not through fear or force, but through the power of love.

An Invitation to True Salvation

My dear friends, I invite you to embark on the true path to salvation—a path that goes beyond doctrines of atonement and sacrifice, a path that leads to the transformation of your soul through Divine Love. This is the path that will bring you true peace, joy, and fulfillment. It is the path that will lead you to eternal life in the Celestial Heavens, where you will experience the fullness of God's love and presence.

You do not need to be perfect or worthy to receive this Love. You simply need to open your heart, to ask for it, and to be willing to be transformed. God is always ready to share His love with you, to bring you into a closer relationship with Him, and to help you become the divine being that He created you to be.

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). This is my promise to you. When you come to God with an open heart, when you seek His Love, you will find rest for your soul. The path to salvation is not one of sacrifice or suffering—it is a path of Love, transformation, and joy. It is a path that is open to you, now and forever.

May you always know that you are Loved, that you are cherished, and that the path to Divine Love is open to you. Come, my friends, and let us walk this path together. Let us open our hearts to the Love of our Father, let us be transformed by His Divine Love, and let us find the peace and joy that come from being at one with Him.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

LIVING IN DIVINE LOVE

My beloved friends, today I wish to share with you how to bring Divine Love into your everyday life, so that it may guide your thoughts, words, and actions, and help you build a deep and meaningful relationship with God. Divine Love is not something that is reserved for moments of prayer or times of spiritual devotion—it is meant to be a living force that fills every part of your life, bringing you joy, peace, and fulfillment. Living in Divine Love means allowing that Love to transform not only your soul but also how you interact with others and how you see the world around you.

The journey of receiving Divine Love is not one of striving for perfection but one of opening your heart to God and allowing His Love to fill you. It is about building a personal relationship with God, based on trust, sincerity, and a deep longing for His presence. Through prayer, compassion, and service, you can live each day in harmony with Divine Love and allow that Love to flow through you to others.

Praying for Divine Love

One of the most important ways to live in Divine Love is through prayer. Prayer is the means by which you open your heart to God and invite His Love to enter your soul. It is not about reciting words or following rituals; it is about the longing of your heart to be close to God, to know Him, and to experience His Love. When you sincerely pray for Divine Love, God responds by sending His Love into your soul, transforming you from within.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). When you pray for Divine Love, you are asking God to fill you with His essence, to make you more like Him, and to bring you into closer alignment with His will. This prayer is not just about words; it is about the deep desire of your soul to receive God's Love and to be transformed by it.

Take time each day to pray for Divine Love, to sit quietly, and to open your heart to God. Let go of your fears, your doubts, and your feelings of unworthiness, and trust that God Loves you deeply and unconditionally. As you pray, you will begin to feel His presence, a warmth that fills your heart and a peace that surpasses all understanding.

This is the beginning of the transformation that Divine Love brings.

Overcoming Obstacles: Unworthiness and Fear

Many of you may feel unworthy of God's Love or fear that you are not good enough to receive it. But I tell you, my friends, Divine Love is not given based on your worthiness—it is a gift that God offers to all His children, simply because He Loves you. God does not look at your mistakes or your past; He sees the potential of your soul and the beauty that lies within. He longs to share His Love with you, to lift you up, and to help you become the divine being He created you to be.

"There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear" (1 John 4:18). Divine Love is the antidote to fear. When you open your heart to God and receive His Love, you will find that fear begins to fade away, replaced by a sense of peace and security that comes from knowing that you are deeply loved. You do not need to be perfect to receive Divine Love; you simply need to be willing to open your heart and to allow God to fill you with His Love.

Living in Alignment with Love, Compassion, and Service

Living in Divine Love means allowing that love to guide your actions, your thoughts, and your relationships with others. It means choosing to live in compassion, to see others through the eyes of Love, and to treat them with kindness and understanding. Divine Love is not meant to be kept to yourself; it is meant to be shared, to flow through you to others, and to bring light and healing to those around you.

"Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another" (John 13:34). When you receive Divine Love, you are filled with the same Love that God has for all of His children. This love will naturally flow out of you, leading you to act with compassion, to forgive, and to serve others. It will help you to see beyond the faults and weaknesses of others and to recognize the divine potential that lies within each person.

Service is an important aspect of living in Divine Love. When you serve others, you are expressing God's Love in action. Whether it is through a kind word, a helping hand, or simply being present for someone in need, acts of service are a way of sharing the love that you have received. Service is not about seeking recognition or reward; it is about allowing God's Love to flow through you, to touch the lives of others, and to bring healing and hope.

Building a Personal Relationship with God

The foundation of living in Divine Love is building a personal relationship with God. God is not a distant or impersonal force; He is a Loving Parent who desires to be close to you, to share His Love with you, and to guide you on your journey. This relationship is built on trust, sincerity, and the desire to know God more deeply. It is not about following rules or adhering to doctrines; it is about opening your heart, being honest with God, and allowing His Love to fill you.

"Come near to God and He will come near to you" (James 4:8). God is always ready to draw near to you, to embrace you with His Love, and to guide you on your journey. All you need to do is open your heart, to come to Him with sincerity, and to be willing to receive His love. As you build this relationship, you will begin to feel God's presence more deeply, and you will experience the joy and peace that come from being in harmony with Him.

Living in Trust and Gratitude

Living in Divine Love also means living in trust and gratitude. Trust that God's Love is always available to you, that He is always guiding you, and that He desires the best for you. Even in times of difficulty or uncertainty, trust that God is with you, that His Love is working in your life, and that He is leading you toward greater growth and fulfillment.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight" (Proverbs 3:5-6). Trusting in God means letting go of the need to control, to understand everything, and to rely on your own strength. It means surrendering to God's Love, knowing that He is always with you, and that He will guide you on the path that is best for your soul.

Gratitude is another important aspect of living in Divine Love. When you receive God's Love, you will naturally feel a sense of gratitude—gratitude for His presence, for His guidance, and for the Love that fills your soul. This gratitude will help you to see the blessings in your life, to appreciate the beauty around you, and to recognize the ways in which God's Love is at work in your life. Gratitude will also help you to remain open to God's Love, to continue to seek it, and to allow it to transform you.

An Invitation to Live in Divine Love

My dear friends, I invite you to live each day in Divine Love. Take time to pray, to open your heart to God, and to allow His Love to fill you. Let go of fear, doubt, and feelings of unworthiness, and trust that God Loves you deeply and unconditionally. Allow that Love to guide your thoughts, your actions, and your relationships with others. Live in compassion, serve others, and build a personal relationship with God that brings you joy, peace, and fulfillment.

"Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace" (Colossians 3:15). May you always know that you are Loved, that you are cherished, and that Divine Love is available to you, now and forever. Come, my friends, let us walk this path together. Let us live in Divine Love, let us share that Love with others, and let us find the joy and peace that come from being at one with the Creator.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

SECOND COMING

AWAKENING SOUL

My beloved friends, today I wish to share with you the true meaning of the Second Coming. Many have been waiting for my physical return, imagining a grand event where I descend from the heavens to establish a kingdom on Earth. But I tell you, the Second Coming is not about a physical return. It is about a spiritual awakening, a renewed understanding of God's Love, and the revelation of the true teachings that I brought to the world over two thousand years ago.

The Second Coming is happening now, in the hearts and souls of those who are open to the truth of Divine Love. It is not a single, dramatic event, but a gradual awakening of humanity to the profound Love that God offers to each of His children. I come to you not in the form of flesh, but in the form of truth, in the form of the spirit, and through the messages that I continue to share with those who are receptive to my guidance.

The Second Coming is about each of you discovering the path to Divine Love and allowing that love to transform your soul.

A Spiritual Awakening

The Second Coming is a spiritual awakening that is taking place within the hearts of those who are open to receiving the truth of God's Love. It is an awakening that calls each of you to a deeper understanding of who God is—a Loving, Merciful Parent who desires nothing more than for His children to receive His Love and be transformed by it. This awakening is not bound by geography or time; it is happening everywhere, in the hearts of people who long for a deeper connection with the Divine.

"For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them" (Matthew 18:20). My presence is with you now, not in a physical form, but in the spirit. When you open your heart to Divine Love, when you gather in love and sincerity, I am there, guiding you, uplifting you, and helping you grow closer to God. The Second Coming is about the awakening of your soul to the truth of God's Love and the transformation that occurs when you receive that Love.

Restored Truths of Jesus

One of the most important aspects of the Second Coming is the restoration of the true teachings that I brought to the world. Over the centuries, many of my teachings have been misunderstood, altered, or lost. The concept of salvation has often been reduced to a belief in my death as a sacrificial atonement for sin, rather than the transformation of the soul through Divine Love. The true message that I brought is that God's Love is available to all who sincerely desire it, and that through this Love, your soul can be transformed and made divine.

"I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). These words do not mean that salvation is limited to belief in my sacrifice. Rather, they mean that the path I showed—the path of Divine Love—is the way to know God and to be united with Him. The Second Coming is about restoring this understanding, about helping each of you realize that the true path to salvation is not found in doctrines of sacrifice, but in the New Birth of the soul through Divine Love.

The Call to Seek Divine Love

The Second Coming is a call to each of you to seek Divine Love and to allow that Love to transform your soul. It is a call to move beyond fear, beyond judgment, and beyond the limitations of human understanding, and to embrace the Love that God offers freely to all His children.

This Love is the key to spiritual awakening, the key to experiencing the true joy, peace, and fulfillment that can only come from being in harmony with God.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). This is the invitation of the Second Coming—to ask for Divine Love, to seek the truth of God's presence, and to open the door to a deeper, more intimate relationship with the Creator. The Second Coming is not something that you must wait for; it is something that you can experience now, in this moment, by opening your heart to God's Love.

A Transformation of the Soul

The true purpose of the Second Coming is the transformation of the soul. This transformation occurs when you open your heart to Divine Love and allow it to change you from within. It is not about following rules or adhering to religious rituals—it is about experiencing the presence of God in your soul, about feeling His Love, and about allowing that Love to guide your thoughts, emotions, and actions.

"Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind" (Romans 12:2). The Second Coming is about renewing your mind and your soul through the power of Divine Love. It is about letting go of the old ways of thinking, the fear, the judgment, and the separation, and embracing the love that God has for you. This transformation is the key to experiencing the Celestial Heavens and the fullness of God's presence.

The Role of Each Individual in the Second Coming

Each of you has a role to play in the Second Coming. It is not something that happens outside of you; it is something that happens within you. When you open your heart to Divine Love, when you allow yourself to be transformed by that Love, you become a part of the Second Coming. You become a beacon of light, a vessel of God's Love, and an example to others of what is possible when the soul is united with the Divine.

"You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden" (Matthew 5:14). When you receive Divine Love and allow it to transform you, you become a light to others. The Second Coming is not just about your own awakening; it is about helping others awaken as well. It is about sharing the truth of Divine Love, about living in a way that reflects God's Love, and about inspiring others to seek the same transformation.

An Invitation to Awaken

My dear friends, I invite you to be a part of the Second Coming—to open your heart to the spiritual awakening that is taking place now. You do not need to wait for a future event; you can experience the Second Coming today by seeking Divine Love and allowing it to transform your soul. The truth that I brought to the world is being restored, and you have the opportunity to be a part of this great awakening.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me" (Revelation 3:20). I am knocking at the door of your heart, inviting you to experience the Second Coming—not as a distant event, but as a present reality. Open your heart, receive Divine Love, and allow the transformation to begin. This is the true meaning of the Second Coming—a spiritual awakening that brings you into perfect harmony with God.

May you always know that you are loved, that you are cherished, and that the Second Coming is happening now, in your heart and in your soul.

Come, my friends, let us walk this path together. Let us awaken to the truth of Divine Love, let us be transformed by that Love, and let us find the joy and peace that come from being at one with the Creator.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

G. Bo. Amin, brings forth New Birthing as a work of the heart and soul — a living testament to the power of Divine Love to transform, heal, and awaken the soul. Choosing a sacred pen name to honor the spirit of the work, G. Bo. steps into the role of a humble messenger, offering readers a direct encounter with the timeless message of Jesus: that the soul's true destiny is to be reborn in Love.

Jesus is the author of New Birthing: Transforming the Soul, a heartfelt invitation to awaken to the living presence of Divine Love. Inspired by the timeless truths revealed anew by Jesus. This is a new transformation of the messages that offers a fresh voice for those seeking a deeper, more personal relationship with the Divine. This work shines a light on the true purpose of the soul: to be transformed and fulfilled by the Love that flows eternally from God, The Father.

This has been guided by a deep longing and passion for Divine Love, truth, healing, and wholeness, G. Bo. has immersed himself in the study of these messages and the practice of wholistic health and wellness. His journey weaves through the realms of qigong healing, yoga, and meditation. As a dedicated teacher for many years, he has helped others reconnect with the sacred unity of body, mind, and spirit,

Through his healing arts and spiritual devotion, G. Bo. brings a gentle yet profound perspective. New Birthing is more than a book—it is a call to transformation, a reminder that Divine Love is not a distant hope but a living reality waiting to be received.

With compassion, clarity, and vision, this book and Youtube video series invites every soul to step into the radiant journey of the New Birth, where peace, joy, and oneness with God become not just ideals, but living truths.

"In every soul, there is a whisper of Love calling it home. New Birthing is the answer to that call."

G Bo Amin, holds study groups, prayer / meditation sessions online to encourage deeper understanding, healing and connection. Incorporating ancient practices which helps integrate body, mind and soul. For more information - Gboamin@NewBirthing.life
