LOYAL TO THE CORE

Sean Horsburgh is Violet Town through and through, no-one has coached the club's senior team for more years having previously coached the senior team for 6 consecutive years, a best and fairest winner (2006) & Burden trophy winner (2005 & 2009) Sean started his career in the fourths at a single digit age, progressing through the thirds to senior ranks making his senior debut in 2001, incredibly this is his 21st senior year. Sean's proudest moment would be as a premiership player in 2012. It was the club's first flag at senior level since 1990. He has also tasted defeat on the last day in 2003 (vs Yea) & 2018 (vs Nagambie). On May 15th, all things going well (our next home game) Sean will become only the third player in our rich 126 year history to reach the 300 senior game milestone. Uncannily talented on both sides of his body and able to play almost every position this highly popular and great servant of our club will always be revered around the club, part of the reason this great country town still has football and netball is Sean Horsburgh.

On May 15th we urge all the community, past players & coaches and supporters to gather at our home ground to honour one of our true champions and afterwards a function in his honour as we salute one of our great stalwarts.

Take a bow Sean, well played!
