

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year 2013

This year has flown by and it's hard to believe that Christmas and a New Year are just days away. When we discussed what to say to our grooming family as 2012 draws to a close, the overwhelming conclusion was simply "Thank You." This year, it was a bit odd to watch the world around us transition from Halloween to Christmas with hardly a mention or thought of Thanksgiving. Christmas decorations were up early and advertisers were pushing Christmas sales before Thanksgiving even arrived. Black Friday sales were going before Thanksgiving dinner was even cold. That is heartbreaking!

The Gospel of Luke tells the story of Jesus healing ten men, lepers who had been pretty well excluded from society because of their affliction. Jesus gave them back their very lives, yet only one had a heart of gratitude and returned to Jesus to thank Him. We never want to be like the other nine. We are thankful to you for entrusting us with your dogs. We are thankful to God for each of you and for the blessings that He continues to pour out on our business. We know that times are tough and we appreciate your continued patronage of our humble shop.

God is good!

May you be blessed by God and encompassed by His holy angels this Christmas season and throughout 2013!

Your HD!G Family,
Robert, Melissa, Lilia, Liam & Aidan

"In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God..." ~ 1 Thessalonians 5:18