JOKE OF THE MONTH:

What Did the Ocean Say to The Shore?

Nothing. It Just Waved.

Drain and rinse artichokes, then chill in refrigerator for approximately 10 minutes. Mix egg and milk, beating until combined. In a separate bowl, pour breadcrumbs. Dip artichokes into egg mixture, soaking completely and allowing excess to drip off, then in breadcrumbs. Continue until all artichokes have been covered. In a medium saucepan, heat oil. Cook artichokes approximately 2 minutes, then flip and repeat until lightly browned. Top with cheese and serve with marinara. Serves 6-8. Total Time 20 Minutes.
