‘In My Darkest Hour’

A song for Macmillan

live performance by Geoff Libby

“I have been inspired to create this song not only from my experiences as a cancer patient, but also in the hope that others going through this journey will relate to the thoughts and feelings that I have expressed in the lyrics and the music. The song is also created to express my gratitude to Macmillan for the time, consideration and support that they have offered me to date on my cancer journey”
