

Daily Scripture Readings

Use these daily scripture readings to invite your congregation into personal daily devotions. You might create a bulletin insert or bookmark with the daily scriptures and series logo to give out the first week of the series. To go a step further, provide some teaching about how to read scripture for personal devotion. For example, you could introduce a practice like lectio divina.

Daily scripture readings can also serve as the basis for daily posts on Facebook or Instagram. Include a discussion question that connects the scripture reading to the week's worship theme.
