ABOUT THE CHARITIES

Forging Forward serves active duty military, veterans, first responders, and Gold Star Families via organized Retreats; Remembrance Tags (dog tags of military combat veterans who died by suicide), The Body Shop, a program that assists a military veteran wounded in war to get or update a prosthetic; Reflective Art, an activity using art to tell a story, and comedy from the founder, Bobby Henline, to uplift spirits and demonstrate that with a positive attitude, support from family and friends, and hope—anything is possible.

The organization works with men, women and families to increase social connectivity, gain new skills, increase knowledge and treatment of physical and mental health conditions related to trauma, and provide resources that allow an individual to live a collective, fulfilling and dignified life.

Harrington For Hope serves children with burns, who were admitted to or treated by a burn center. Funds are used to provide a week of physical and emotional healing at Camp Hope.

Harrington, a former lieutenant with the Cookeville Police Department, holds a special place in his heart for burn survivors, especially those who are children. In 2016, Harrington found himself fighting for his life after entering a burning home in an effort to save the lives of others. After an unexpected explosion in the home, the lieutenant spent one month at the Vanderbilt Burn Center in Nashville being treated for his injuries.

It was there that Harrington learned of Camp Hope and met Rebekah Lemley, a burn center nurse who also served as the camp's director. She noted the biggest struggle as camp director was funding. Harrington vowed he would make it a priority to help fund the camp.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. See also What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and, generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS is giving you this form because they
