

We have been learning about Jesus' parables at our family services.

There is also a remembrance wreath that the children at Boys' Brigade made.