

■■ AMERICAN LEGION POST 67 PRESENTS

High School Oratorical Scholarship Contest

■ Win up to $25,000 in scholarships!

Are you ready to lead, speak, and inspire?

Represent your school and community — and compete for college scholarships while exploring the U.S. Constitution.

WHO CAN ENTER

High school students in the 757 area interested in leadership, public speaking, and civic engagement.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Deliver a prepared oration (8–10 minutes) on a Constitutional topic
- Present a short speech (3–5 minutes) on an assigned topic revealed during the contest
- Compete locally and advance to District, Department (State), and National levels for scholarship prizes

WHY JOIN

- Earn scholarship money
- Gain confidence and leadership skills
- Learn from veterans who will guide and mentor you throughout the process
- Build a foundation for college and citizenship

WHEN

- Local Contest: Early January 2026

READY TO SPEAK UP?

Contact Post 67 today to sign up or learn more!

Patricia Aughtry

1st Vice Commander, American Legion Post 67

■ post67membership@gmail.com

“A voice that understands the Constitution is a voice that shapes the future.”