

SEEKING VOLUNTEERS

WE'RE STUDYING GREATER HARTFORD'S REAL ESTATE MARKET

We're looking for:

- home-buyers and home-shoppers
 - anyone who just purchased a home, who is shopping for a home, or who is thinking about buying a home in CT
- real estate agents, realtors, appraisers
 - who work in Greater Hartford, CT (within 30 minutes of Hartford)

Participation can involve:

- informal interview(s)
- letting us tag along and observe activities like open houses
- sending us property listings that illustrate what you're looking to buy or show clients

Confidentiality:

Participants' identities will be protected through the use of pseudonyms and the exclusion of identifying information. Sensitive data will be protected.

Rachael D. Stephens

Principal Investigator

PhD Candidate

rstep@upenn.edu

IF INTERESTED,
PLEASE ENTER YOUR CONTACT
INFORMATION BY CLICKING
HERE OR BY SCANNING THE QR CODE

About this study:

This research is part of Rachael Stephens' dissertation, which is an anthropological study of real estate, school finance, and inequality in Greater Hartford, CT. If you'd like to know more, please scan the QR code for greatergreaterhartfordanthro.com

