Our tour is unique in the quality of our housing, food and travel arrangements. Most nights we stay at top-tier hotels, though we sometimes spend the night at a college dorm when a unique opportunity is available. Meals and our tour bus always exceed expectations, and students have often reported that our trips are far better in the quality of the travel arrangements than any other student tour they have ever taken.

Once you give us the college destination of your choice, UniGO! will handle the rest. We are experts at setting up tours for high school students, including a campus tour, information sessions, meals, and lodging.

If you are like most college students and their family members, you also want to get an idea of what it will be like to live in that area. We take care of that too. Our college tour guides will also make stops around the city or town, museums, historical sites and theme parks. After all, don't you want to know what it will be like to live in that area?

For many students, the process of figuring out which university best fits their needs is an overwhelming and confusing task. The tours transform this experience into an enriching and fun spring and summer adventure. We encourage students to enroll with friends, but even those who don't arrive knowing someone will end up with a group of newly-found friends, usually from across the US.

Spring Tours - April and May

Summer Tours - July and August

Fall Tours - September and October

Tour Packages range from $3,000 to $7,000

UniGO! OFFERS FOUR EXCITING COLLEGE TOUR OPTIONS FOR STUDENTS

Students can choose between the Northeast College Tour which visits universities from Boston to Washington D.C. including University of Pennsylvania, Swarthmore College, American University, Georgetown, Boston College and more.

The California and Florida College Tours visit the top schools throughout those two states. In California, tours include UCLA, Berkeley, USC and Stanford; and in Florida you will walk the campuses of Florida International University, University of Miami and University of Central Florida. The warm weather and palm trees on these two tours will leave you wanting more.

The New York College Tour will allow you to explore key universities like Columbia, NYU and Fordham University. The sights, sounds and skyscrapers of the Big Apple capture all of your senses.

All four tours allow students to hear detailed admissions presentations, tour the campuses they plan to make their four-year homes, and sample the local culture and cuisine along the way!
