	soon. Happy reading!!
Math	We will start the week remembering how to create equivalent fractions which are a tool to help compare and add/subtract fractions with different denominators. Read page 424 CAREFULLY so that you understand what it is saying. Then do page 425 using what you reviewed on page 424. Then read page 430 CAREFULLY and do page 431. If you have already done these pages, take a nice big pink eraser out and erase your answers and do them again OR you can do them on a different paper once you have erased your answers. Remember that you may text on Remind if you have questions. The only requirement is that you have to be able to show me where you tried to do the problem first before you ask for help.	We will continue this week reviewing fractions and specifically benchmark fractions. Read page 436 carefully to refresh your memory. Do page 437 all of the questions. On page 438 do #19 and #21.	Do page 426 all. Do page 434 all. Do page 438 #22,23,24.
