

Become a Member

Be part of the largest group of people supporting individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities

Membership With The Arc Cedar Valley

Human Rights

You strengthen the Arc's voice to protect the human rights of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD)

Support

You help families connect and navigate through challenges.

Achieve

The impact from your support can last a lifetime.

Support Us

Make a one time or recurring donation. Your contribution makes a positive impact for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families.

The Arc

Cedar Valley

Est. 1954

We Can Help

Information

- What services are available in your community and how to access them.
- What makes an environment accessible
- What are the legal rights of parents.
- How current laws protect your child's rights.

Financial Assistance

- Limited funds available for camperships, respite care, and other items and situations related to a disability.

Education

- Learn what the available options are for your family member with an intellectual and developmental disability.

About us

Founded in 1954, The Arc Cedar Valley has a long history of providing a voice for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families.

Advocacy and Support

- Connect you with parents who have worked through similar medical and behavioral issues, and challenges that you may be experiencing.
- Help you navigate paperwork, funding sources, and eligibility.
- Join voices to effect public policy benefiting people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Follow Us

Contact Us

760 Ansborough Avenue
PO Box 4090
Waterloo, IA 50704

 319-232-0437

 thearc CedarValley@gmail.com

TheArcCedarValley.org