

Gomez met Nygard in 2010 through a friend, Tresha Williams ("Williams"), who invited her to a dinner party at Nygard's Marina Del Rey property ("MDR property"). Gomez believed that Williams was one of Nygard's long-time friends, but not one of his girlfriends. Upon her arrival at the MDR property for the first time, Gomez was required to register at the front office. She believes staff examined her identification and took a photograph of her. Gomez believed that once the staff knew who she was, they no longer asked her to register or provide identification upon her subsequent visits.

Gomez recalled her first dinner at the MDR property was "interesting." She described Nygard as having a "charming personality." Eventually Nygard invited her to the MDR property again.

Gomez acknowledged having had a personal, intimate sexual relationship with Nygard, and having travelled with him "all around the world." Gomez has flown on Nygard's private plane, and was not aware of anything inappropriate or "wild" taking place on the plane.

Gomez said she had lived across the street from the MDR property in one of Nygard's apartments.

Gomez worked for Nygard, essentially acting as his personal assistant handling his travel, but could not specifically recall her job title. She also could not remember how much she was paid. She believed that she received wire transfers into her bank account sporadically for years following long trips she took with Nygard. Gomez is not currently being paid by Nygard. Payments from Nygard ended a couple of years ago when Gomez started her own business.

Nygard Cay

Gomez visited Nygard Cay up to five times in 2012. Each time she visited Nygard Cay, she stayed for approximately one week. Gomez attended dinner parties at Nygard Cay with others who included volleyball players and a photographer who came to do photo shoots (she could not remember his name).

Gomez was not aware of any inappropriate behavior by Nygard while she was with him at Nygard Cay, and specifically had no knowledge of Nygard drugging women. She said Nygard does not like women who get intoxicated, noting he "steers away from girls that get too drunk." Nygard does not like drugs and does not allow drugs on the property. Nygard, in general, likes being healthy.

Pamper Parties at Marina Del Rey

Gomez attended many Pamper parties at the MDR property. She first attended a Pamper party in 2010 and last attended one approximately five years ago.

Gomez was not aware of any underage women attending Pamper parties. Gomez said Nygard did not have an interest in underaged women, and she never saw underaged women around Nygard.

Concerning the allegation that bartenders or staff drugged women so that Nygard could take advantage of them, Gomez said she never saw "anything like that." She was very surprised by this allegation as Nygard did not find women who took drugs attractive. Further, no women ever complained or confided in Gomez that they believed they had been drugged. Gomez never saw any women who were overly drunk or passed out. She said Nygard preached against drugs.

Gomez said she "absolutely" never heard of any women being held against their will by Nygard. She said Nygard was not a violent person. She described him as having a "gentle" attitude. She suggested that if a woman “was wild,” Nygard “would walk away from that.” Nygard did not like “wild girls.” Gomez never witnessed Nygard being forceful with any women. She said, “he didn’t have to.”

She said Nygard is all about “positivity and doing better.” She described Nygard as a super helpful guy who wanted to see people do better, not to hurt people. Nygard wanted people to improve, not to destroy them.

Gomez explained that there may have been women around Nygard who had substance abuse problems. Nygard would attempt to help these women. For example, Isaac from the United States was a friend of Nygard’s and had a substance abuse problem. Nygard did not know about her problem at first, but when he found out about it, he told her not to travel and supported her, giving her a place to live (she lived in one of the MDR apartments), providing her healthy meals, and generally taking her “under his wing.”

Gomez never heard of Nygard paying women for sex. She said, “girls fancied his lifestyle” and he did not need to pay anyone for sex. She said she saw “many women attracted to his lifestyle.”

Gomez has spent a lot of time with Nygard in a lot of different locations. She has found Nygard to be interesting, charming, and enjoyed his personality. She said Nygard was very generous, kind-hearted, and liked to help people.
