
Mark Kembel

Kirkland 98034 | 425.324.8264 | markkembel@gmail.com

Summary

Innovative and results-driven CEO and Founder with extensive experience in executive management within the AI technology sector. Proven track record of developing and launching cutting-edge online courses in AI, Machine Learning, and Software Test Development, while collaborating with industry leaders like Intel. Adept at strategic planning, team leadership, and project management, with a strong ability to analyze data and drive business growth through effective marketing and business development strategies. Highly skilled in Python programming and committed to advancing technological education and fostering partnerships with academic institutions. We just started a new business division for AI Medical services April 1, 2025.

Skills

- Team Leadership
- Strategic Planning
- Communication
- Problem-Solving
- Collaboration
- Artificial Intelligence & Machine Learning
- Course Development & Instruction
- Project Management
- Data Analysis & Visualization
- Programming Languages: Python

Experience

FOUNDER, Chairman of the Board | 09/2025 - Current

AI Online Developer + Inc. - Kirkland

- Use the development and launch AI medical by using the knowledge of Deep Learning, Natural Language Processing, AV technology's, Language Processing, and Computer Vision, driving significant growth in hospital engagement.
- Help guide and direct the marketing and sales of Apple's Vision Pro glasses that run AI surgical programs.
- Once funding is completed run the new AI surgical company from being the Chairman of the Board.
- Strategized and implemented effective marketing campaigns, managed website design and user experience, and oversee all business operations, leading to a streamlined technology used.

CEO, FOUNDER | 09/1995 - 06/2002

interTest.com - Bellevue

- Directed comprehensive business operations including marketing, sales promotions, business development, financial planning, job placement assistance, and strategic business planning, resulting in sustained company growth and market presence.
- Delivered impactful sales presentations at major tech hubs such as Microsoft PacWest Centers and COMPUSA, effectively boosting brand visibility and client acquisition.
- Authored and instructed the highly successful Software & Web Testing Program, training hundreds of software testers for the Volt-Microsoft account, and forged partnerships with Portland Community College, Shoreline Community College, and Green River Community College, where the course achieved consistent sell-out status for four consecutive years.

SOFTWARE TEST ENGINEER & MANAGER | 11/1990 - 08/1995

Microsoft Systems Division - Redmond

- Interviewed, trained, and managed test team members on testing methodologies, new technologies, and test procedures, ensuring a highly skilled and effective testing team.
- Managed the Windows 95 printing team by creating and administering project schedules, leading performance reviews, and ensuring the timely completion of testing milestones.
- Served as Program Manager for the Windows 95 System Printer Team, collaborating with OEMs, addressing legal matters, and overseeing printer driver testing schedules to ensure compatibility and performance standards.

SENIOR TECHNICAL ASSOCIATE | 12/1987 - 12/1988

Microsoft Product Support Services - Redmond

- Delivered expert technical support for Windows 1.0x and Excel 2.x, 3.x via phone, ensuring high-quality assistance and resolution for customer inquiries and issues.
- Designed and implemented a flowchart to track Windows printing problems, significantly enhancing the efficiency and effectiveness of the technical support staff.
- Consistently maintained high customer satisfaction ratings through thorough problem-solving, clear communication, and timely issue resolution.

Education and Training

Eastern Washington University

Management Information Systems

GPA: 3.85

Spokane Community College

Business Administration