Motion by Joe Turk and seconded by Tom Mosey to accept the December 16, 2019 minutes as corrected. Motion carried unanimously.

Sheriff's Report: Nothing to report

Treasurer's Report: Dave Darner reported minimum wage increase to $9.25 a hour soon to be $10.00 an hour , which will effect some employee wages.

Real estate taxes went up 60% looking through errors in classifications to find reductions. Filed a protest, hearing scheduled February 18th.

Dave went over status of the land purchase. As of meeting date $193,175 was collected and a total of 282,340 was received in commitments.

For the loan Grundy bank and 1st Secure were the final two financial institutions decided on, both banks had similar rates and terms. The deciding factor to go with Grundy bank was collateral, Grundy used the land itself, 1st secure wanted to hold all of GLA assets. An agreement of $10,000 earnest money and then appraisal will be ordered. (See #3 attached motion) He also spoke of himself, Dave Darner and Terry Livingston being able to act as agents of the association. (See #4 attached motion)

Budgets were almost ready then they will be presented to the budget committee The budget will be voted on at the following months meeting.

Motion by Mike Poeschel and seconded by Dan Rezabek to accept the Treasurer's report subject to audit. Motion carried Bar- Reported everything is going good, audit went well with Joe Turk(Audit committee chair). Tom Morris came in and repaired an urgent issue regarding a frozen/broke pipe in the bar allowing it to open for the day. Kyle Oakes is looking into service contract for the ice machine. He is also looking into a better filter for the ice machine to improve water quality and performance. In the process of getting quote on Bar stools.

Tom Mosey inquired about a past budget discussion to put 5000.00 a year away for four years for a new outside bar sign. The treasurer will investigate.

Campground- Quiet no issues. Burnt leaves along the fence. Still working on the rain gutters on the cabana. Kyle Oakes discussed a gate system for entrance of the beach and campground.

Beach- Doing minor repairs. Need to update new salaries due to minimum wage increase. Talked about issue with the life guards leaving for school before the end of our season, and looking for resolutions.

Maintenance- Tractor is in the repair shop. Motion was made for fund approval. (See #2 attached motion)

Barb Peters representing several homeowner requests to have the Goose lake office be open one evening a week, mainly at peak season to accommodate people who work. It will be reviewed by Dave Darner and re-addressed next meeting.

Safety-Nothing to report

Social- Easter party April 11 at 1:00 pm sharp

Weeds- Joe Turk went over the weed report. He explained that he was taking bids for the 2020 weed removal contract. Three companies were approached Rollins Aquatic(current contract holder) McCloud and JadECo. McCloud was 7% higher than Rollins and JadECo regretfully declined. Committee recommended staying with Rollins Aquatic.

Joe Turk went over the fourth quarter 2019 Financial audit report (see #1 attached motion).
