Welcome to our newly named classes! We chose tartans for each of the class names.

Menzies & Milne Classes

These classes focus on developing musicality and movement patterns along with correct body alignment and posture. Dancers will learn the basic positions of the feet, head, and arms along with basic dance movements. As the classes progress, dancers will put the movements to music. The goal is to be able to dance technically correct pas de basque, high cuts, sheds, and toe heels to music. The dances that may be taught are: pas de basque, pas de basque & high cuts, fling, sword, lilt.

Menzies – aimed at our youngest and newest dancers age 3-4years and young dancers with 1 year of experience.

Milne – for new 4-6 year olds and young dancers with 1-3 years of experience.

Lennox

This class focuses on improving muscle movement patterns while maintaining correct body alignment and posture. The class will focus on the first five highland dances – Fling, Sword, Seann Triubhas, Lilt & Flora.

MacGregor & Hebridean

Experienced dancers will continue to work on the first five highland dances for exam and competition technique. Work will be continue on the more advanced movements and dances such as Johnny, Laddie, Jig and Hornpipe. Dancers should attend at least two classes. These dancers may be encouraged to participate in the Clan Fraser class as well.

MacKellar, Crieff, & Cunningham

These classes are for dancers with significant highland experience. Focus is on building strength, technical ability, and knowledge with the application to music. New dances and steps are taught as warranted by exams and competitive levels. Students are grouped as per teacher recommendations.

Dancers should attend at least two classes and are highly encouraged to join either the Clan Fraser or the Wallace class as per the recommendation of the instructor.

Clan Fraser & Wallace

Participants in this class will need their runners, light weights, a foam roller and a yoga mat. Class will consist of a warm up, sport specific training, conditioning, and stretching. All dancers who receive recommendations for this class are encouraged to participate. The Wallace class is also open to adults and parents who would like to get in a workout!
