Dear Christine,

A big happy Easter to you. I hope you are keeping well and safe during the corona virus lockdown. I thought it would be nice to send a letter to say I am thinking of you.

I am staying at home with my PA's and we are enjoying lots of different activities to keep us entertained. I have been enjoying learning to run, baking and crafts, walking Cookie, cooking up storms when we do 'Masterchef' (my favourite meal is pasta), singing, dancing and laughing lots. I have also been creating a travel show weekly with Antonia, where we visit a new country, for example this week it is Italy. Rotollo di bateria means drum roll in Italian. Kerry and I have recreated Pryzm nightclub in the flat on Friday night's, with lots of lights, music and yummy mocktails – it was great to see you on Friday night. You are always welcome to join us for a boogie!! Lauren B and I baked some yummy Easter cakes and also made up a cool song called 'Mr Flexible' to help understand the corona virus.

How are you? It would be lovely to hear from you. If you would like to send a letter back while we are all in lockdown, it would be great to hear from you.

Enjoy the mini eggs (prepared wearing gloves).

Take care, stay safe. Lots of love,

Andrew
