

Bishop Fredrick J. Jackson

Bishop Fredrick Jeremy Jackson was born August 28th to District Elder and Sis. Freddie Jackson of Purvis, Mississippi.

Bishop Jackson began preaching January 3, 1993 at the age of 14 and has been enjoying the ministry to this present time. He loves preaching and teaching the word of God and will not compromise the Gospel of Jesus. He has toured the country preaching revivals, conferences, conventions, etc. in 38 of the 50 United States. He has also ministered internationally in Montserrat, Jamaica, and South Africa.

Bishop Jackson was ordained in October, 2002 by the Mississippi and Western Tennessee District Council of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World.

He served as Vice Chairman of the License/Credential Committee, standing member of the Resolution Committee, President of the Mississippi and Western Tennessee District Council Young People's Union, Treasurer's Assistant, Aeon Bible College Extension Coordinator. At his home church (Christ Temple, Purvis, MS) he served as Assistant Pastor, Sunday School Superintendent, church organist and the administrator of the "King's" Kids Learning Center. Because of his working knowledge and ability to understand the needs of the community; he was the author of many grant proposals which brought new programs to the Southern Mississippi area. These proposals were written by Bishop Jackson, submitted to federal agencies and grant funds were awarded for community programs. He has been awarded grants by such agencies as Mississippi Action for Progress, Corporation for National and Community Service (MLK Day), and also the Mississippi Department of Human Services to name a few.

Bishop Jackson received his High School diploma from Purvis High School, he later received his Associate in Applied Science in Marketing and Management from Pearl River Community College. He was asked by the Superintendent of Education in Mississippi to serve on the Craft Committee for Baxterville High School and was the first African-American youth to serve in the history of the committee. The Craft Committee is a committee designed to aid in the enhancement of better education and renovation of schools for more tech prep classes. He has received credentials as a Certified Anger Management Specialist from the Life Enrichment Center of Longview, Texas. He also received 6 credit hours in Church Management and Tax Law from the Chitwood and Chitwood Firm of Memphis, TN. He matriculated at the Hartford Seminary in Greek studies. Bishop Jackson was listed among the Presidential Who's Who among Business Leaders in 2009. In March, 2011 Bishop Jackson hosted the National Curriculum and Training Institute of Phoenix, AZ and was certified as a "Real Colors" facilitator.

Bishop Fredrick Jeremy Jackson became the pastor of the Greater Grace Apostolic Church on Friday, February 10, 2006. He was installed on Sunday, June 4, 2006. In addition to pastoring Greater Grace, he was appointed Associate Pastor of Christ Church of Deliverance on February 17, 2010. On Wednesday, May 4, 2011, Suffragan Bishop Andrew Clancy announced his retirement as Pastor and stated that Bishop Fredrick Jackson would be his successor. Wednesday, May 25, 2011 Bishop Fredrick Jackson was installed as pastor of Christ Church of Deliverance #1. On Oct. 7, 2011 Bishop Jackson was elevated to District Elder in the Connecticut District Council. He is the executive director of the Church Developers Network and Institute of Connecticut established in October of 2011.

He was appointed the Chairperson of PAW Charities by Presiding Bishop Charles H. Ellis, III. In June, 2013 he was elevated to Suffragan Bishop in the Connecticut District Council. In June, 2015 he was elected Chairman of the Connecticut District Council.

On Thursday, July 30, 2015 in Detroit, MI during our Centennial Celebration Suffragan Bishop Jackson was elected to the Executive Board of Aeon Bible College. During the 2017 Spring Executive Board Meeting held in Mobile, AL, Bishop Jackson was elevated to the office of Bishop and on Friday, August 4, 2017, Nashville, TN - Bishop Jackson was officially consecrated as Bishop in the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World. He will serve as diocesan bishop of the 65th Episcopal District of the Mpumalanga Province of South Africa.

Bishop Jackson was united in holy matrimony to his lovely bride, Evangelist Michelle Jackson on Saturday, June 3, 2006. On Sunday, March 21, 2010 the Lord blessed Bishop and Evangelist Jackson to be the proud parents of - Master Jeremiah DaQuan Jackson.

Greater Grace Apostolic Church and Christ Church of Deliverance are blessed to have Bishop Jackson as our Shepard.