

Nancy Hughes Miller

April, month of pink and fiery energy

Lately I've found myself contemplating and exploring new paths relating to my love of nature. Heightened awareness and appreciation of solar, lunar, tidal and plant cycles reinforce my sense of connectivity with the universe. I learned that the "Pink" Full Moon of April was so named not because of its appearance but because the light it casts at night illuminates the many pink blossoms of Spring! Pink and its warm kindred hues found a prominent place in my paintings this month. I imagined fiery, calming energy in the sky, above ocean waves and marsh wetlands — nature's everyday magic both seen and felt.

new paintings

Sunset Sky Beach 24x48 oil on canvas $2700 UGallery

Summer Sky, Marsh Morning 18x24 oil on canvas, available 5/10/21

Marsh at Sunset 20x40 oil on linen $1975 UGallery

Sunset Clouds 9x12 oil on canvas sold

Sunset Storm 9x12 oil on canvas sold

Sunset Sky Marsh 10x20 $550 in my website art shop

Daybreak Ocean 6x6 $300 in my website art shop

Marsh At Dawn 24x36 oil on canvas $1800 in my website art shop

Sand Gnome Sunset Beach NC by anonymous sand sculptor

Pink Full Moon High Tide April 26 Intracoastal Waterway

If you have any questions about my art, commissions or availability, contact me:

info@nancyhughesmiller.com

For 15% off my website Art Shop use checkout code: spring15

expires June 20, 2021, the Summer Solstice

Thanks for looking and share with your art friends!

NancyHughesMiller.com

©2021 Nancy Hughes Miller artist | All rights reserved, images may not be downloaded, reproduced, printed, altered or used in any way without express consent from the artist.

Web Version

Preferences

Forward

Unsubscribe

Powered by
GoDaddy Email Marketing®