Quiet waves under clouds, hopeful light on the horizon, a passing storm, the sun will come out again

Quiet, hopeful paintings

To escape the noise and disharmony of these calamitous days, I seek quiet... not to mention peace, hope, unity, truth and a return to normalcy — whatever that is now. In my art studio I find quiet and I am so grateful for this. The paintings I create in this cherished refuge come from my heart — they symbolize my dream for the world:

Harmony in nature made possible by harmony among people
