

Frequently Asked Questions

What is required to reserve a date?

A non-refundable fee, depending on the date, is required to hold a date.

When are the additional payments due?

The total food, beverage, and all other service fees will be due two weeks before the date of the event.

How long is my rental?

Mill Room rental is 4 hours. If the event is not ended at the specified time and goes over, an additional rental fee of $100 will apply per hour.

Is there a food, beverage, or guest count minimum?

Yes, each event space has a minimum for both guest count and food/beverage total.

What is the role of the in-house venue coordinator?

The in-house venue coordinator will conduct your tour, host your tasting, respond to email inquiries, and collect payments. The coordinator will meet with you (in person or over the phone) to go over event detail periodically prior to your event. Any additional meetings are available upon request.

What about rehearsals?

Please coordinate rehearsal time with the in-house coordinator.

What time will I have access to the venue to decorate?

This time will vary depending on other booked events. Please schedule a time with the venue coordinator.

We are using a rental company. Can they drop items off or pick them up outside of the rental period?

This may be an option, and will have to be worked out with the in-house venue coordinator in advance.

Are any decorations prohibited?

The use of birdseed and blowing bubble is permitted for outside wedding and reception farewells. Rice, confetti, silk flower petals, glitter, pyrotechnics and sparklers are not permitted inside or outside the facility. Candles must be contained or have a wide base. We also ask that if you choose to hang decorations, you use alternative hanging options that will not damage the walls.

Can I bring in outside food or alcohol?

Dew Drop Inn/The Mill Room will provide all the food and beverages for your event, with the potential exception of desserts. No outside food or beverage is permitted.

Can we leave decorations and other items at your facility to pick up the next day?

Any decorations or belongings left at The Mill Room will become the property of The Mill Room, and we have the sole discretion to dispose of any decorations. Please speak with our in-house venue coordinator ahead of time for any exceptions.

Are there any additional charges to my rental?

We have several additional features you may choose to add to your rental for an additional cost. Please reach out to our venue coordinator for further information.
