Volunteer Opportunity

This year we have many opportunities for those interested in helping others. Compassionate Warriors, Inc., has partnered with New Dawn Outreach and McKnight Family Ministries-The Cafe Fellowship located at 350 E Adams Street in Downtown, Jacksonville. Having done much work with them in the past we are committed to do our part in helping the homeless. The first Saturday of every month starting February 6th at 10:00 we will meet at New Dawn. If you would like to volunteer and be a part in this please contact me at tinagray@cwoj.net or sign up as a volunteer on our website.

Thank You!

We would like to thank LAMA- Latin American Motorcycle Association of Jacksonville for coming out to support us during our 2nd annual candlelight vigil. They donated over 300 stuffed animals to our toy drive. We will be distributing these this month to kids in foster care with Daniel Memorial and to the Jacksonville Sheriffs Office as well as Atlantic Beach Police Department. We are blessed to know such awesome individuals who care about our community. We look forward to the upcoming bike ride with them!
