Although we have used our best endeavours to supply a list of applicable legislation, it is possible that this list may be incomplete. Whenever it comes to our attention that existing or new legislation allows a Requester access on a basis other than as set out in PAIA, we shall update the list accordingly. If a Requester believes that a right of access to a record exists in terms of other legislation listed above or any other legislation, the Requester is required to indicate what legislative right the request is based on, to allow the Information Officer the opportunity of considering the request in light thereof.*

- 7.3 The company holds and/or processes the following records for the purposes of PAIA and POPIA:
- 7.3.1 PAIA: PAIA Manual; PAIA guides; PAIA records; PAIA submission records; awareness training.
- 7.3.2 POPIA: Including, but not limited to, the following: IO Registration Certificate; data breach records; retention records; awareness training.
- 7.3.3 Further information which may be made available upon request.
- 7.4 The above-mentioned records may be requested; however, it should be noted that there is no guarantee that the request will be honoured. Each request will be evaluated in terms of PAIA and any other applicable legislation.

8 Request Process

- 8.1 An individual who wishes to place a request must comply with all the procedures laid down in PAIA.
- 8.2 The requester must complete Form 02 of PAIA Forms (Request for Access to Record) herein, is attached hereto and submit it to the IO at the details specified herein.
- 8.3 The prescribed form as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) must be submitted to the IO at/via the postal or physical address, fax number or email address as is stated herein.
- 8.4 The prescribed form must be completed with enough particularity to enable the IO to determine:
- 8.4.1 The record(s) requested;
- 8.4.2 The identity of the requestor;
- 8.4.3 What form of access is required; and
- 8.4.4 The postal address or fax number of the requestor.

- 8.5 The requestor must state that the records are required for the requestor to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. An explanation of why the records are requested is required to exercise or protect the right.
- 8.6 The request for access will be dealt with within 30 (thirty) days from date of receipt, unless the requestor has set out special grounds that satisfies the IO that the request be dealt with sooner.
- 8.7 The period of 30 (thirty) days may be extended by not more than 30 (thirty) additional days, if the request is for a large quantity of information, or if the request requires a search for information held at another office of the company and the information cannot be reasonably obtained within 30 (thirty) days. The IO will notify the requestor in writing should an extension be necessary.
- 8.8 The IO must communicate a response to the request for access using Form 03 of PAIA Forms (Outcome of Request and of Fees Payable) herein. This communication shall inform the requestor of:
- 8.8.1 The decision; and
 - 8.8.2 Fees payable.
- 8.9 In the event that the IO is of the opinion that the searching and preparation of the record for disclosure would amount to more than six (6) hours, he/she shall inform the requestor to pay a deposit not exceeding one third of the amount payable.
- 8.10 Should the requestor have any difficulty with the form or the process laid out herein, the requestor should contact the IO for assistance.
- 8.11 An oral request can be made to the IO should the requestor be unable to complete the form due to illiteracy or a disability. The IO will then complete the form on behalf of the requestor and provide a copy of the form to the requestor.
- 8.12 Form 2 of POPIA Forms (Request for Correction or Deletion) herein, is used by a data subject to request the correction of inaccurate, outdated, incomplete, irrelevant, or misleading personal information, and/or the deletion or destruction of personal information that is no longer necessary or unlawfully obtained, in accordance with Section 24(1) of POPIA. It ensures that responsible parties maintain accurate and lawful records of personal data.
- 8.13 Form 3 of POPIA Forms (Application for the Issue of a Code of Conduct) herein is used by an industry body, profession, or class of entities to apply for the issuance of a Code of Conduct under Section 61(1)(b) of POPIA. It allows industries to self-regulate how personal information is processed within their sector, in line with the conditions for lawful processing.
- 8.14 Form 4 of POPIA Forms (Request for Consent – Direct Marketing) herein enables a responsible party to formally request a data subject's consent to receive direct marketing communications via unsolicited electronic means (e.g., SMS, email), as required under Section 69(2) of POPIA. It ensures that individuals have control over whether and how they are marketed to.
- 8.15 Form 5 of POPIA Forms (Complaint Regarding Interference with Personal Information) herein allows a data subject or complainant to submit a complaint to the IR concerning unlawful interference with personal information; or a determination made by an adjudicator under POPIA. It provides an avenue for recourse and investigation in cases of non-compliance with data protection obligations.

9 Grounds for Refusal

The following are grounds upon which the company may, subject to the exceptions in chapter 4 of PAIA, refuse a request for access in accordance with chapter 4 of PAIA:

- 9.1 Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, including a deceased person, where such disclosure of personal information would be unreasonable.

 - 9.2.3 Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the company, the disclosure of which could put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the third party in commercial competition.
- 9.3 Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement.
- 9.4 Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property.
- 9.5 Mandatory protection of records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings.
- 9.6 Protection of the commercial information of the company, which may include:
 - 9.6.1 Trade secrets;
 - 9.6.2 Financial/commercial, scientific or technical information, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the company;
 - 9.6.3 Information which, if disclosed, could put the company at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the company in commercial competition; and/or
 - 9.6.4 Computer programs which are owned by the company, and which are protected by copyright and intellectual property laws.
- 9.7 Research information of the company or a third party, if such disclosure would place the research or the researcher at a serious disadvantage.
- 9.8 Requests for records that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.

10 Remedies Should a Request be Refused

- 10.1 If the company does not have an internal appeal procedure in light of a denial of a request, decisions made by the IO is final.
- 10.2 The requestor may in accordance with sections 56(3) (c) and 78 of PAIA, apply to a court for relief within 180 (one-hundred-and-eighty) days of notification of the decision for appropriate relief.

- 14.1.1. Keeping our systems secure through access controls, system monitoring, and usage tracking;
- 14.1.2. Storing physical and digital records in secure, access-controlled environments;
- 14.1.3. Restricting access to buildings, systems, and records to authorised personnel only;
- 14.1.4. Securely destroying or deleting personal information once it is no longer required;
- 14.1.5. Ensuring compliance with relevant data protection standards, legal requirements, and industry codes of conduct.

14.2. In addition, the following technical security safeguards have been implemented to support these objectives:

- 14.2.1. Data encryption (at rest and in transit) to protect sensitive information from unauthorised access;
- 14.2.2. Anti-virus and anti-malware software to detect, prevent, and mitigate cyber threats;
- 14.2.3. Firewalls and intrusion detection/prevention systems (IDS/IPS) to monitor and safeguard network traffic;
- 14.2.4. Multi-factor authentication (MFA) and role-based access controls to limit access based on job function and business need;
- 14.2.5. Secure backup and disaster recovery solutions to ensure business continuity and data integrity;
- 14.2.6. Ongoing system monitoring and access logging to detect and respond to suspicious activity;
- 14.2.7. Physical security controls such as keycard access, secure storage, and visitor management procedures;
- 14.2.8. Employee training and awareness programmes to promote secure data handling and prevent human error;
- 14.2.9. Secure disposal of physical and electronic records when no longer needed or when required by law.
- 14.2.10. These safeguards are continuously reviewed and enhanced to address new risks, changing business processes, and advancements in technology.

16. Objection to the Processing of Personal Information by a Data Subject

- 16.1. A data subject who wishes to object to the processing of personal information in terms of section 11(3)(a) or section 11(3)(b) of the Act, must submit the objection to a responsible party at any time during office hours of a responsible party and free of charge.
- 16.2. A data subject who wishes to object to the processing of personal information must do so on a form substantially similar to Form 3 herein, free of charge and reasonably accessible to a data subject by hand, fax, post, email, SMS, or WhatsApp and or in any manner expedient to a data subject in terms of section 11(3)(a) of the Act.
- 16.3. A responsible party must, when collecting personal information of a data subject, notify the data subject, in terms of section 18(1)(h)(iv) of the Act, of their right to object, as referred to in section 11(3) of the Act.
- 16.4. If an objection to the processing of personal information of a data subject is made telephonically, such an objection shall be electronically recorded by a responsible party and upon request, be made available to the data subject in any manner, including the transcription thereof.

17. Request for Correction/Deletion of Personal Information or Destruction/Deletion of Record of Personal Information

- 17.1. A data subject has the right, in terms of section 24 of the Act, to request, where necessary, the correction, destruction, or deletion of his, her or its personal information.
- 17.2. A data subject, who wishes to request a correction or deletion of his, her, or its personal information, as provided for in section 24(1)(a) of the Act, has the right to request correction or deletion of personal information at any time and free of charge, if the personal information is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully.
- 17.3. A data subject who wishes to request the destruction or deletion of a record of his, her, or its personal information in terms of section 24(1)(b) of the Act, has the right to request the destruction or deletion of a record of his, her or its personal information at any time and free of charge, if a responsible party is no longer authorised to retain such information in terms of section 14 of the Act.
- 17.4. A request for correction to or deletion of personal information, as referred to in sub-regulation 12.11.2 or a request for the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information, as referred to in sub-regulation 12.11.3 must be submitted to a responsible party on a form which is substantially similar to Form 2 of POPIA Forms herein free of charge and reasonably accessible to a data subject by hand, fax, post, email, SMS, WhatsApp message or in any manner expedient to a data subject.

- 17.5. A request for a correction or deletion of personal information by telephonic means shall be recorded by a responsible party and such recording must, upon request, be made available to a data subject in any manner, including the transcription thereof which shall be free of charge.
- 17.6. A responsible party must, within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the outcome of the request referred to in sub-regulation 12.11.2 or 12.11.3, notify a data subject, in writing, of the action taken as a result of the request
