

Habitat for Humanity makes a tremendous impact on the lives of homeowners. Our work impacts health, environmental and educational outcomes; civic and social engagement; the financial stability of Habitat families; and local economies. This infographic details one component of our economic impact. See below to learn how Habitat's work contributes to local economies across the state by supporting jobs and purchasing local goods and services, creating a ripple effect that multiplies our investment to generate meaningful impact.

Beyond the house: How Habitat's investments ripple across local economies

An economic impact analysis

Our work
in 2022

$42,131,346

invested in operations, construction, rehabilitation and renovation

Our impact
in 2022

$68,580,013

economic impact of Habitat's investments

718

jobs supported,
generating

$1.63

dollars injected into the state economy for every dollar invested by Habitat

$863,039

in local and state
taxes paid

$31,233,797

in wages paid into the state economy

Top industries impacted:

1. Community food, housing, and other relief services
2. Construction of new single-family residential structures
3. Real estate sales and property management

84%

of affiliates
included

Results measure only the economic impact of affiliates as measured by affiliate expenditures on programming and operations. Additional factors contributing to economic impact (e.g., property taxes paid, homeowner spending) are not included. The economic impact was estimated using IMPLAN, an economic modeling software, based on data from affiliate financial documents.