REV. CATHY HENDERSON

Supply Pastor

It is my joy to worship with you today. My prayer is that every person who enters this place experiences God's presence, God's love, and God's transforming power.

Together, let us grow in faith, serve with purpose, and share the hope of Jesus Christ with our community.

Reverend Cathy Henderson is a devoted lover of God, a committed servant of Jesus Christ, and a vessel for the transformative power of the Holy Spirit. Called for such a time as this, she is dedicated to advancing God's Kingdom and bringing freedom to the spiritually captive.

A native of Charlotte, NC, Reverend Henderson began her ministerial journey in 1999, formally accepting her calling on October 19, 2001. She was ordained in 2005 in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church.

In March 2014, following the leading of the Holy Spirit, she founded River of God International (ROGI), an outreach ministry devoted to equipping the Body of Christ to share the gospel and become carriers of God's life-giving flow (John 7:38; Ezekiel 47:9). Reverend Henderson currently pastors "Dayspring," an AME Zion Mission (church-plant).

She also serves as an Episcopal Prayer Coordinator, local Director of Evangelism, and the Director of Leadership Education for the Connectional Christian Education Department.

Reverend Henderson holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology and a Master's degree in Organizational Development with a focus on Leadership and Conflict Resolution. She brings over 20 years of leadership experience in behavioral and public health, recognized for her ability to inspire collaboration and drive meaningful change. As a county public health manager and an independent organizational development consultant, she views her professional work as an extension of her ministry.

A dynamic preacher, speaker, and facilitator, Reverend Henderson is celebrated for her thought-provoking and energetic delivery in both Christian and professional settings. She is a fervent worshipper, an intense intercessor, and a servant leader who radiates joy and genuine love for others. Whether in the pulpit, the boardroom, or the community, Reverend Cathy Henderson embraces life fully, seeking to glorify God and empower those she serves.
