Sunday, January 25, 2026– The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are called by God, both individually and as Church members, to join His disciples. The call is both a privilege and responsibility. The mission of preaching, teaching, and healing which Jesus began in Galilee has become the responsibility of the Church and of each individual Christian. Our response to the call begins with our reception of Baptism and Confirmation, the Sacraments of Initiation. That response is meant to be strengthened through the years by the Eucharist and Reconciliation and to be made manifest in Matrimony or Holy Orders. We are healed and consoled in the Anointing which also prepares us for death. As we respond to Christ's call, we gain spiritual strength through our personal and family prayers, our Sacramental life and our faithful study of the Bible and the Church's teachings.

The Gospel of Mathew (Mt. 4:12-23) shows us that what had been prophesied by Isaiah is fulfilled through Jesus, "Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness: for there is no gloom where but now there was distress. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone." (Is. 8:23-9:1). In his ministry of calling disciples and reforming lives, Jesus brought Light to peoples in darkness, restoring and fulfilling God's original promise. His presence made a great difference in the lives of the people. His light was strongly felt because it brought healing and deliverance. Jesus' teaching and healing ministry, which invited people to repent of their sins and accept the Good News of God's Kingdom, changing their lives to match their Faith.

When we receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, we are sent forth to proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom and to defend the Catholic Faith. Each of us Christians has received a unique call to preach the Good News of God's love, mercy, forgiveness, and salvation through our daily life. This call challenges us to rebuild our lives, homes, and communities in the justice and peace that Jesus proclaims. As we strive to live our baptismal call, let us ask the Lord Jesus to give us the strength and perseverance to answer his calling, so that we may faithfully serve the Lord, doing His Divine will as best as we can by cooperating with His grace.

God Bless,
Rev. Jose Parathanal
