Dear Parishioners,

Congratulations to the children from Our Lady of Good Help Parish who received their first Holy Communion this Saturday at St. Theresa Shrine! Our dedicated Second Grade Teachers Michelle Poirier and Jennifer Bodziony trained our second graders well, keeping up with them via “Google Meet” throughout this pandemic year. Every year, I am impressed by our First Communicants zeal, enthusiasm and reverence. We pray that our First Communicant’s love for Jesus in the Eucharist grow more fervent as they grow up!

It is fitting that we celebrate First Communion this weekend, as it is the beautiful Feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that: “The Eucharist is ‘the source and summit of the Christian life.’ The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself.” (1324). Today in commemoration of this most sacred feast at St. Theresa Shrine, our friends from St. Mary’s on Broadway in Providence will be offering a special outdoor Mass in the Extraordinary Form and procession of the Blessed Sacrament beginning at 11 AM. A picnic on the Shrine grounds will follow. The Mass is open to our parishioners as well.

Lastly, I would like to share some extraordinarily great news! James Brodeur, long-time parishioner of St. Theresa Shrine and former organist/music director (occasional fill-in in recent years), has been accepted as a novice at St. Norbert Abbey in De Pere, Wisconsin. James is beginning his journey towards ordination to the sacred priesthood in August as a Norbertine priest, a religious community founded by St. Norbert dedicated to promoting and defending the Holy Eucharist. James is the first vocation in decades from St. Theresa and the first priestly vocation associated with Our Lady of Good Help! Please keep James in your continued prayers as he answers the call to serve at the Altar of God!

God Bless,

Fr. McMahon
