The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Marriage and Family are the most beautiful concepts and one being the foundation of the other. On the strength of the virtues and values of this institution, the society and the world is truly based, promoted and sustained.

Throughout the Bible, marriage is the symbol of the Covenant relationship between God and His chosen people. The theme of marriage is beautifully presented by Prophet Isaiah by using the metaphor of spousal love to describe God's love for Israel. God's fidelity to his people is compared to a husband's fidelity to his wife. Marriage and marriage banquets have much importance in the Bible. The Bible begins with one wedding, that of Adam and Eve in the garden (Gn 2:23-24), and ends with another, the marriage banquet of the Lamb in heaven (Rv 19:9, 21:9, 22:17).

According to the Gospel of St. John, Jesus begins his public ministry at a wedding in Cana where He reveals His Divine power by transforming water into wine. At Cana, Jesus also blesses human marriage, and perhaps at that moment instituting the Sacrament of Matrimony. In the middle of the wedding feast, "the wine ran short." This was a difficult situation for the young couple, and may indicate that they came from poorer families. To run short of wine at a wedding feast was certainly a serious problem, particularly damaging to the reputation of the host and an ill omen for the newly-married couple.

When the wine "ran short," Jesus' Mother told him about it. Jesus told the servants to fill the six large stone jars with water which he miraculously turned into wine saving the reputation of the family and the young couple. Jesus' provision of abundant wine for the wedding feast in Cana signifies that the day foreseen by Isaiah has arrived, the coming of the day of redemption and salvation.

God, often as an uninvited guest in our families, works daily miracles in our lives by protecting us from physical and moral dangers, providing for our needs, inspiring us, and strengthening us with His Holy Spirit. When we feel shortages in our family lives, we, especially the spouses need Jesus and Mary in their midst: when their dreams are gone, mutual love seems dried up, the relationship becomes boring, and raising the children becomes a burden draining all their energy. The awareness of the presence of Jesus and Mary in the family will encourage parents to create an atmosphere of prayer, Bible-reading, mutual love, and respect, with a spirit of forgiveness and sacrificial service at home.

Let us pray for God's daily miracles in our families.

God Bless you!

Rev. Jose Parathanal

It is never too late to receive the sacraments for the first time! If you are an adult who would like to be baptized or receive your first sacraments we encourage you to call the parish office and set up a time to meet with our pastor.

St. Theresa Shrine of the Little Flower

Candle intentions at the Shrine can be made for the St. Therese candle, the St. Joseph and our Lady candles, the Sanctuary candle and the Divine Mercy Candle. Intentions are for 1 week and are published in the bulletin. The recommended donation is $10. Unpublished candle intentions are $4 and can simply be made in the church. A Mass intention box for unpublished intentions through the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate is located at the entrance of the church. Suggested donation $10.

Please consider our parish in your will. A legacy donation to the parish can help to insure that your memory lives on in the work of our Churches. If you would like to make an appointment with Fr. Jose to discuss legacy giving, please call the parish office at 401-568-8280

The 2025 Catholic Charity Appeal has officially begun. This year's theme, "Trust in Providence," is a powerful reminder of God's grace and the trust he has placed in us to serve others. Our parish goal remains the same as last year, with an overall diocesan goal of $7.5 million. As we celebrate the 100th anniversary of the appeal, let us reflect on a century of hope, compassion and support provided to all those in need throughout our state. Please prayerfully consider a gift to the appeal as we strive for 100% parish participation. CCA envelopes will be available at all 3 churches beginning in February. See the CCA website for more information: dioceseofprovidence.org/cca
