The 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prophets, whether during the biblical times or today, face rejection, embarrassment and persecution. It can happen even in our lives that our friends, families, or childhood companions fail to listen to us and refuse to accept the words of grace, love and encouragement that we offer to them. And cannot listen to that which we can see so clearly. They may be unable to see us as God's appointed instruments, the agents of God's healing and saving grace.

As Christians who accept the call of Jesus and seek to follow him, we who try to live as a sign of God's values in the secular society, may face indifference and hostility, contempt and scorn, weakness, hardship and persecution, insults and rejection. Our obligation is to face such rejection with prophetic courage, because by our Baptism we are called to be prophets like Jesus, sharing his prophetic mission. As prophets, our task is to speak the truth and oppose the evils in our society and we cannot condone or encourage sinful behavior, even in our dear ones.

Jesus encountered rejection from his hometown and from his own people, but he continued his mission with prophetic courage. History is proof of many people who encountered similar rejection and humiliation but became great contributors to the society.

The brilliant British Theologian G.K. Chesterton could not read until he was eight years old. A teacher said if his head were opened they would probably find a lump of fat instead of brain. That teacher was wrong. Einstein's parents were informed by a teacher that he would never amount to anything. Beatrix Potter's The Tale of Peter Rabbit, was rejected by seven publishers. Richard Bach got twenty rejection slips before Jonathan Livingston Seagull was published. Ruth Graham felt an uncontrollable urge to run out of the meeting the first time she heard Billy Graham preach. She was not convinced of his preaching ability, and was put off by his preaching style. Billy had to improve his preaching before Ruth would become his wife.

We should cultivate a strong willpower to face rejection and hardship in witnessing and upholding truth, justice and the value of all life.

God Bless,
Rev. Jose Parathanal, C.M.I.

July is the month which the Catholic Church sets aside for the veneration of the precious Blood of Christ Jesus. Devotion to the precious blood is most often associated with reparation for sins and for the endurance of hardship. Consider adding this devotion to your prayer life.

July food pantry openings are Monday the 8th and the 22nd from 4:30-6:30pm.

As the gardening season begins, we are very happy to receive any surplus produce you may be able to share. The food pantry also accepts cash, checks and supermarket gift cards, along with direct donations. May God bless you for your generosity to your neighbors in need!

Purchasing a cemetery plot and planning your funeral before you actually need one is a step you can take today that can greatly ease the burden for your family following your death.

The decisions following the death of a loved one can be overwhelming and difficult, especially when planning a funeral and burial in a short period of time or following an unexpected event. Making pre-arrangements is a surprisingly simple and affordable gift you can give to your survivors to ease their burden in the midst of grief. For more information on pre-arrangement, please contact Deacon Rick at the St. Patrick's church office.

The Chesterton Academy of Our Lady of Hope is accepting applications for the 2024-25 Academic year.

Chesterton is an independent Catholic, Classical High School in Warwick, Rhode Island. Inspired by the beauty and richness of the Catholic faith, Chesterton Academies seek to form young men and women to be joyful saints. By introducing them to great thinkers such as Socrates, Thomas Aquinas and Dante, and by forming them in a distinctly Catholic culture, we lead students to choose for themselves the adventure of being a disciple of Christ. At their annual June Plenary Assembly, the bishops of the United States held a canonical consultation on a possible cause of beatification and canonization for Adele Brise. In 1859, Adele experienced several apparitions of a woman dressed in white whom she later identified as Mary, the Queen of Heaven. She instructed Adele to become a teacher of religion. Adele began a door-to-door ministry, eventually founding a community of laywomen known as the Sisters of Good Help.

For more information on the cause for her canonization and the process see the links:

Catholic School Financial Aid 2024-25 School year.

If you are a registered and active parishioner of Our Lady of Good Help, St.

Theresa Shrine or St. Patrick Church, have a child who is enrolled in a Catholic School in grades K-12, and are seeking parish financial assistance, please forward your letter of request to Fr. Jose as soon as possible. Please note, your school's financial aid application should be completed as well.

The parish and Shrine offer our good wishes and prayers to the Rev. Mr. Joseph Brodeur and to the Rev. Mr.

Jairon Olmos Rivera, who were ordained to the priesthood this past weekend. Rhode Islanders are most fortunate that we have such young men who are willing to take up the cross of priestly ministry. May God Bless them in all that they do!
