The Hartsel Library is enrolled in the City Market Community Rewards Program. Each time you use your City Market card either at their store or at a Loaf and Jug gas station a portion of your purchase is designated for the Hartsel Library. It does not affect your points accumulated. We receive quarterly checks and they have been a big help in keeping your library open. They have a new enrollment process in place. Because the library can no longer enroll your membership for you, you have to enroll yourself. Each individual will need to re-enroll each year. That website is www.citymarket.com. Please find time to re-enroll. For those of you that have never enrolled, we do have a few enrollment forms at the library with the City Market card. You can also pick up a City Market card at their store. Once you log on to the website it will ask which organization you are designating. Please select Hartsel Library Friends. We appreciate your effort to keep this program working for us.
