

HELEN GREEN WOLFE

Helen Ruth Green Wolfe was born January 22, 1926 in Knoxville, Tennessee to George and Daisy Green. Helen was the oldest of 11 children. She passed away on Tuesday, November 14 at the home of her daughter Louise in Callahan. Mrs. Wolfe peacefully gave up her fight with dementia and went on to join her husband and other loved ones at the age of 91.

Helen married Charles Wolfe on December 6, 1945 and they lived in Tennessee following his return from serving during WWII in Germany. They were blessed with six children. Helen and Charles raised their children in Tennessee during their early years later relocating to North Florida in 1962. Charles and Helen lived in Callahan, St. George, and Hilliard area for the remaining of their days. Helen lost her beloved husband in 1999 after 53 years of marriage.

Mrs. Wolfe was a wonderful daughter, sister, wife, mother, and grandmother. She spent much of her time as a homemaker. She was a great seamstress and baker. Mrs. Wolfe's made from scratch homemade cookies were shared with many friends and relatives around Northeast Florida and South Georgia over the years. Mrs. Wolfe was often found sewing scraps of material into beautiful handmade quilts that are treasured by family members, friends, and neighbors.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Charles; son Gary; daughter Shirley; grandson Roger; great-grandson Colt; and seven siblings.

She is survived by her children, Paula Louise (Thomas, Sr.) Drury, Judy (Dale) Holton, Gary (Carol) Wolfe, Brenda (Joe) Lee, Shirley (Michael) McClellan and Timothy (Annette) Wolfe Helen; 11 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; and nine great-great grandchildren.

Active pallbearers were: Randy Holton, Travis Holton, Garth Holton, Doug Cole, Dusty Cole and Cody Layfield. Honorary pallbearers were: Daniel Wolfe, Adam Wolfe, Charlie Lee, Brady Holton, Devin Reeves, Lucas Reeves, Landon McClellan, Bryan Ward, Matthew Ward and Clint Griffis.

The family received friends Friday, November 17 at Callahan Funeral Home. The funeral service was held Saturday, November 18 also at the funeral home with Rev. James Carter officiating. Interment followed at Live Oak Cemetery in Callahan.
