

IRIS BRADDOCK TANNER

Iris Crawford Braddock Tanner, 85, of Hilliard, went home to be with the Lord on January 6. She was born on May 15, 1932 in Hilliard to Tom and Addie Crawford. She was a member of the River Road Baptist Church and worked as a beautician in Hilliard, O'Neil, and Jacksonville. She loved flowers and loved to make arrangements. She loved working in her yard and growing beautiful plants and shrubs, playing with the great-grandchildren and just simply sitting and rocking on her porch.

Iris is survived by her daughters Linda Ryals and Brenda (Danny) Mallard; grandchildren John Watkins, Keela Watkins, Kylee Fox, April Mallard, Jared Mallard and Shannon Fasan; 13 great-grandchildren; and three nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband Jimmy Leon Braddock; her parents Tom and Addie Crawford; sisters Clella "Sis" Mixon and Dorothy Durham; brother O.B. Crawford; two nieces and one nephew.

Viewing will be held Wednesday, January 10 from 6-8 p.m. in the Nassau Funeral Home Chapel. Funeral services will be held Thursday, January 11 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at 11 a.m. with Danny Mallard and Pres. Gordan Hand officiating. Interment will follow in the Conner-Green Cemetery in Hilliard.

Pallbearers will be Justin Fasan, Dustin Chancey, AJ Walker, Jimmie Fullard, Jared Mallard, Matt Rouse, Danny Mallard and Hubert Chapman.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations in her memory be made to the Alzheimer's Association by visiting: www.alz.org for more information on how to donate.

Condolences may be expressed at www.nassaufh.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 879-1770.
