

ALMA STOKES CARROLL

Alma Christine Stokes Carroll, 84, of Callahan, went home to be with the Lord on January 24. Alma was born on January 20, 1934 at St. Vincent's Hospital Jacksonville to Louis A. Stokes and Lettie I. Stokes Cowart Lain. She married the love of her life on April 24, 1954. Alma enjoyed spending her time with family and friends. You could find Alma at Hardee's in Callahan with three generations of family most Sunday mornings. Alma was a member of the local Cherokee's of Georgia and loved to spend time at the Indian Grounds especially during the annual Pow Wow. Her favorite times were spent within a five mile radius of her house at the houses of her family. Alma will be missed and remembered by all the people whose lives she impacted over the last 84 years.

Alma is survived by her loving husband and best friend, Clifford W. Carroll; daughters Carmen 'Connie' (Gordon) Hall and Catherine 'Cathy' (Dennis) Anderson; God child Karen Bishop (Richard) Wilfong; grandchildren Gordon 'Eddie' (Sherrie) Hall, Nancy Lynn (LJ) Walters, Terisia Michelle (Shaun) McKelvy, Elyse Danielle Anderson; and great-grandchildren Kinley Hall, Dallas McKelvy, Nolan McKelvy, Lauren Walters, Hannah McKelvy, Lainey Walters and Austin Walters; and several nieces and nephews and many dear friends which she adored.

Visitation was held prior to the funeral service held Saturday, January 27 at Nassau Funeral Home with Brother Charlie Holmes officiating. Burial followed at Jones Cemetery.

Condolences may be expressed at www.nassaufh.com.

Arrangements by Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 904-879-1770.