

CLARENCE E. MILLARD, JR.

Clarence (JR) Ervin Millard, Jr., 32, passed away suddenly February 9 from a heart condition. He was born May 24, 1985 in Jacksonville. JR grew up in Macclenny. He moved to Callahan 11 years ago and called it home. He enjoyed his family, fishing and riding his Harley. He also enjoyed the smell of asphalt work...he called it money! He loved Tooting Ink and was good at it! He is preceded in death by his father Clarence E. Millard, Sr.; and a brother Kevin Drew.

He is survived by a daughter Skye Bradley Millard; a fiancé Alexandra Stark; his parents Susan and Dwight Dampier of Callahan; a sister Shannen Millard of Macclenny; two brothers Josh Dampier, Timothy Bayless, both of Callahan; grandparents Mary and Thad Dampier; three nieces Sierra and Alauna Crawford and Nadiya Spangler; and many aunts, uncles, numerous cousins and friends.

A memorial service and visitation will be held Friday, February 16 at 7 p.m. at the Callahan Funeral Home Chapel on Brandies Avenue.

Callahan Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements, 879-2336. Condolences may be expressed at www.callahanfh.com.
