

OLIVER 'TERRY' GRIFFIN

Oliver "Terry" Griffin, 92, of Callahan, passed away Saturday, February 17, after a brief illness. He was born in Callahan on March 24, 1925 to H.M. and Geneva Griffin. Terry was a lifelong resident of Callahan. He shared a second home in Warner Robins, Georgia with his wife of 23 years, Geri Mackey Griffin. He was a machinist with the Seaboard Coastline Railroad, retiring after 40 years of employment in 1985. He was a Deacon of the First Baptist Church of Callahan, a member of the Callahan Masonic Lodge, The Scottish Rite and the Moroccan Shrine Club. He loved his family, fishing, farming and fixing things.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife of 46 years Angeline Evans Griffin; his brother Ralph Griffin; his sister Nancy Rosseland; and his stepdaughter Ann Mackey Watson.

He is survived by his wife Geri Mackey Griffin; his daughters and sons-in-law Carol and Mike Snow, Frances and Wynn Winfrey and Linda Ottinger; his stepson and daughter-in-law Calvin and Bebe Mackey; 10 grandchildren, Andy and Jeremy Conner, Amber Rice, Kelly LaMar, Evan Ottinger, Scott Snow, Stacey and Kirk Watson and Dana and Sara Mackey; 16 great-grandchildren; his brother Jasper Griffin of Callahan; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Visitation was held Monday, February 19. Funeral services were held Tuesday, February 20 at the First Baptist Church of Callahan with Pastor Lynn Hyatt officiating. Burial followed at Live Oak Cemetery.

Flowers are welcome, but in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the First Baptist Church of Callahan.

Pallbearers were Andy Griffin, Matt Griffin, Jay Moore, Raymond Fachko, Lee Draper and Jeff Braddock. Honorary pallbearers were the Deacons of First Baptist Church of Callahan.
