

LARRY EUGENE SCOTT

Larry Eugene Scott, 75, of Macclenny, passed away Tuesday, February 20. He was born in Morehead, North Carolina to the late Romain and Lola Scott. Mr. Scott was a resident of Macclenny since 2002, moving from Baldwin, where he lived since the early 1970's. Larry enjoyed a career spanning many years as a truck driver, where he was known by his CB handle as "Singin' Poor Boy." He was a proud member of the Loyal Order of the Moose, Lodge 2412 in Macclenny; VFW Post 7909 of Jacksonville; and also American Legion Post 83 of Macclenny. In his free time, Larry enjoyed fishing and the outdoors, as well as singing at the Moose Lodge in Macclenny. Larry was a very family-oriented man and will be remembered for being a friend to many. He loved being around people and making them laugh. Mr. Scott was also an avid fan of the Gators, Jaguars and Atlanta Braves. He will be missed by many for his sentimental spirit and quick sense of humor.

He is survived by his daughters Tammy (Mike) Harris and Corrina Howle, all of Bryceville and Julie Rousseau of Macclenny; his beloved dog Peewee; his brother William (Lu) Scott of Jacksonville; sisters Deana (Bill) Hadden of Callahan, Brenda (Buddy) Wright of Keystone Heights and Debbie (David) Luttrell of Jacksonville; grandchildren Michael Harris, Shane (Aleena) Howle, Amy Howle, Jessica (Jarrod) Mize, Cody Hodges, Andrea (John) Marecki, Kayce (Earike) Dobson and Colt Rousseau; nine great-grandchildren; as well as numerous other family members. He was preceded in death by his parents; the mother of his children Phyllis Scott; wife Dorothy "Joyce" Scott; and his sister Sunny Nelson.

Funeral Services were held Friday, February 23 at Forbes Funeral Home, Macclenny with Rev. Bill Hadden officiating. His family received friends Thursday, February 22 also at the funeral home. Arrangements by Forbes Funeral Home, Macclenny, 904-259-4600.

Sign the online guestbook at www.forbesfuneralhome.net.