

HARALD STORFJELL

It is with a sad heart that we say good-bye to our dad Harald Storfjell. Harald was born in Ballangen Norway on January 5, 1942 to Arthur and Margaret Storfjell. He came to the United States in 1964 and studied to be an x-ray technician. He later became a Sonographer and worked at Sky Lakes Medical Center in Klamath Falls, Oregon until retiring at the age of 73 in October 2015. He moved in with his daughter Mari in Callahan. He loved being outdoors, hiking, biking and especially cross-country skiing. His favorite place to visit was Crater Lake National Park. He had skied around it several times as well as biked and drove around it. He made it a point to cross-country ski around Crater Lake in one day before he turned 70 which he completed three days before his 70th birthday.

He was known by his grandkids Milan and Titan by the name Tsar-Tsar. In Norwegian the grandparents are referred to by the parent's relation to the grandparent so his son Tim was their fathers father so when Milan was old enough to start talking she could not say Farfar so she called him Tsar-Tsar hence the nickname Tsar-Tsar for both of Tim's kids. When Alexis, Mari's daughter was old enough to start talking she could not say Morfar (Mothers Father) so she started calling him Moofar. Harald had said that he was two names that didn't exist in English or Norwegian and he loved it. He was an avid photographer and many of his pictures have been displayed all over Oregon and various other places where he came in contact. He was loved by many people and has touched many people's lives as well. He had a great smile and laugh. He will be missed by all of us.

He is survived by his son Tim Storfjell and his children Milan and Titan; his daughter Mari (Josh) Tolleson and their child Alexis; and his former wife Marianne McFeeters; brother Ketil Storfjell his two daughters Malfrid Storfjell-Gunderson and Rannveig Storfjell, Malfrid's husband Atle and their children Solveig and Eivind, Rannveig's children Nora, Elida and Olea; Harald's brother Bjornar (Suseela) Storfjell and their son Thomas, Bjornars two older sons and their mom Judy Lloyd-Storfjell, Troy (Kiana) Storfjell and their sons Espen and Nikolai, Thor (Judy) Storfjell and their sons Johan (deceased), Ole and Soren; Haralds brother Per (Annae Grethe) Storfjell and their daughter Ase (Thomas) Storfjell-Olven and their children Markus and Marielle.
